File Form CT-1041 EXT on or before April 15, 2023. If the taxable year is other than the calendar year, file Form CT-1041 EXT on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable year. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the extension request will be considered timely if filed on the next business day.

How to Get an Extension to File and Pay

2. File it on or before the due date of the return; and
3. Pay the amount shown on Line 5.

CT-1041 EXT Back (Rev. 12/22)

DRS will notify you only if your request is denied.

Form CT-1041 EXT only extends the time to file Form CT-1041. Form CT-1041 EXT does not extend the time to pay the income tax.

Interest and Penalty

Interest: In general, interest applies to any portion of the tax not paid on or before the original due date of the return.

If the tax is not paid when due, the trust or estate will owe interest at the rate of 1% per month or fraction of a month until the tax is paid in full.

Late Payment Penalty: The penalty for underpayment of tax is 10% of the tax not paid on or before the original due date of the return.

Late Filing Penalty: The Commissioner of Revenue Services may impose a $50 penalty for failure to file any return or report that is required by law to be filed.

DRS does not process income tax returns for trusts and estates without an FEIN. You cannot write "applied for" in the FEIN field. You must have applied for and have been issued an FEIN before you file a return. However, if you have not received the FEIN by April 15 for calendar year filers or for noncalendar year filers by the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable year, file the return without the FEIN and pay the tax due. DRS will contact you upon receipt of the return and will hold the return until you receive the FEIN and forward the information to DRS. For information on how to obtain an FEIN, contact the IRS.
