General Instructions

Purpose

Taxpayers who are subject to and required to pay the federal alternative minimum tax are subject to the Connecticut alternative minimum tax. Use this form to calculate your Connecticut alternative minimum tax liability and attach it directly behind your Connecticut income tax return. Do not use staples.

Taxpayers who do not have a federal alternative minimum tax liability are not required to complete this form.

Please note that each form is year specific. To prevent any delay in processing your return, the correct year's form must be submitted to the Department of Revenue Services (DRS).

Who Must File This Form

You are required to file Form CT-6251, Connecticut Alternative Minimum Tax Return - Individuals, if either of the following conditions is true for the 2025 taxable year:

- You were a Connecticut resident or part-year resident and had a federal alternative minimum tax liability; or
- You were a Connecticut nonresident with a federal alternative minimum tax liability and you had Connecticut-sourced income.

If you meet one of the requirements above, you must file Form CT-6251 even if your Connecticut alternative minimum tax is zero.

What Is the Connecticut Alternative Minimum Tax

The Connecticut alternative minimum tax is a tax imposed on certain individuals, trusts, and estates in addition to their regular income tax. The tax is computed on the lesser of 19% of the adjusted federal tentative minimum tax or 5.5% of the adjusted federal alternative minimum taxable income.

What Is the Adjusted Federal Tentative Minimum Tax

The adjusted federal tentative minimum tax is your federal tentative minimum tax with certain Connecticut modifications.

Part-Year Residents and Nonresidents

Connecticut part-year residents and nonresidents must first compute the Connecticut minimum tax as if they were Connecticut residents, then apportion their Connecticut minimum tax.

Credits

Connecticut residents and part-year residents are allowed a credit for minimum taxes paid to a qualifying jurisdiction on the income taxed by both Connecticut and that jurisdiction. The credit may not exceed the amount of tax otherwise due.

You may be able to claim a credit against your Connecticut income tax for Connecticut alternative minimum tax paid in a prior year. See the instructions to Form CT-8801, Credit for Prior Year Connecticut Minimum Tax for Individuals, Trusts, and Estates.

Filing Status

Your filing status on Form CT-6251 must match the Connecticut income tax filing status as reported on the front of Form CT-1040, Connecticut Resident Income Tax Return, or Form CT-1040NR/PY, Connecticut Nonresident and Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return.

If you and your spouse are filing a joint federal income tax return and you file separate Connecticut income tax returns, either because you qualify and elect to do so or because you are required to do so, the federal rules for allocating income apply. You must recalculate your federal alternative minimum tax liability as if your filing status for federal income tax purposes was single. If upon your recalculation you would have had a federal alternative minimum tax liability, you are subject to Connecticut alternative minimum tax and you are required to calculate Form CT-6251 as a single individual.

Where the calculation of any individual federal items are subject to limitations (for example, alternative tax net operating loss deduction); the items may have to be recalculated if Connecticut modifications apply.

Schedule A

Credit for Alternative Minimum Tax Paid to Qualifying Jurisdictions Connecticut Residents and Part-Year Residents Only

Residents

Use Schedule A to claim a credit against the net Connecticut minimum tax liability for alternative minimum tax paid during the taxable year to a qualifying jurisdiction. Credit may be claimed only if the income on which taxes were paid was derived from or connected with sources within the qualifying jurisdiction.

Part-Year Residents

Use Schedule A to claim a credit against the net Connecticut minimum tax liability for alternative minimum tax paid to a qualifying jurisdiction on items of income, gain, loss, or deduction attributable to that jurisdiction during the period of Connecticut residency.

A qualifying jurisdiction includes another state of the United States, a local government within another state, or the District of Columbia. A qualifying jurisdiction does not include the State of Connecticut, the United States, or a foreign country or its provinces (for example, Canada and Canadian provinces).

No credit is allowed for any of the following:

- Alternative minimum tax paid to a qualifying jurisdiction on income not derived from or connected with sources within the qualifying jurisdiction;
- Alternative minimum tax paid to a jurisdiction that is not a qualifying jurisdiction;
- Alternative minimum tax paid to a qualifying jurisdiction, if you claimed credit for alternative minimum tax paid to Connecticut on that qualifying jurisdiction's alternative minimum tax return or income tax return; or
- Payments of alternative minimum tax made to a qualifying jurisdiction on income not subject to the Connecticut alternative minimum tax.

No credit is allowed for tax paid on dividends or interest income unless derived from property employed in a business or trade carried on in that jurisdiction. However, credit is allowed for tax paid on wages earned for services performed in a qualifying jurisdiction.

The allowed credit must be separately computed for each qualifying jurisdiction. Use separate columns for each qualifying jurisdiction for which you are claiming a credit. Attach a copy of all alternative minimum tax returns filed with qualifying jurisdictions directly following Form CT-6251.

Schedule A provides two columns, A and B, to compute the credit for two qualifying jurisdictions. If you need more than two columns, create a worksheet identical to Schedule A and attach it to the back of your Form CT-6251.

If you are claiming credit for alternative minimum tax paid to a qualifying jurisdiction and to one of its political subdivisions, follow these rules to determine your credit.

- A. If the same amount of adjusted alternative minimum taxable income is taxed by both the city and the state:
 1. Use only one column of Schedule A to calculate your credit;
 2. Enter the same amount of adjusted alternative minimum taxable income taxed by both city and state in that column on Form CT-6251, Schedule A; and
 3. Combine the amounts of alternative minimum tax paid to the city and the state and enter the total on Line 59 of that column.
- B. If the amounts of adjusted alternative minimum taxable income taxed by both the city and state are not the same:
 1. Use two columns on Form CT-6251, Schedule A;
 2. Include only the same amount of adjusted alternative minimum taxable income taxed by both jurisdictions in the first column; and
 3. Include the excess amount of adjusted alternative minimum taxable income taxed by only one of the jurisdictions in the next column.

Attach a copy of the alternative minimum tax return filed with each qualifying jurisdiction to the back of your Form CT-6251.

Part-Year Residents: Enter the amount of alternative minimum tax paid to a qualifying jurisdiction on items of income, gain, loss, or deduction derived from or connected with sources in that jurisdiction during the residency portion of the taxable year.

If the alternative minimum tax paid to that jurisdiction was also based on income earned during the nonresidency portion of your taxable year, you must prorate the amount of tax for which you are claiming credit. The proration is based upon the relationship that the income earned in that jurisdiction during your Connecticut residency bears to the total amount of income that you earned in that jurisdiction in the taxable year.

Alternative minimum tax paid means the lesser of your tax liability to the qualifying jurisdiction or the tax you paid to that jurisdiction as reported on a return filed with that jurisdiction, but not any penalty or interest.
