WHAT'S NEW

This Informational Publication includes year reference updates. In addition to the year reference updates, there were legislative provisions or other administrative changes that impact withholding obligations. These changes are described below:

Filing Status Name Changed to Qualifying Surviving Spouse

In conformance with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), the filing status Qualifying Widow(er) has been changed to Qualifying Surviving Spouse (QSS).

Subtraction Modification for Pension and Annuity Income

Legislation accelerates the phase-in of the subtraction modification for pension and annuity income. Subject to income thresholds, and effective for taxable years commencing on or after January 1, 2022, eligible persons are authorized to subtract from their adjusted gross income 100% of pension and annuity income when calculating their Connecticut income tax liability.

DEFINITIONS

In this publication, the following definitions apply, unless otherwise specified.

Pay period, means a recurring length of time over which income is paid (e.g. weekly, bi-weekly, monthly, etc.).

Withholding form, means Form CT-W4, Employee's Withholding Certificate or Form CT-W4P, Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments.

File electronically through myconneCT DRS myconneCT is a fast, free, easy, and secure way to conduct business with the Department of Revenue Services (DRS). Visit portal.ct.gov/DRS-myconneCT.

Use myconneCT to view current account balances, make payments, schedule payments, and amend certain tax returns.

CONNECTICUT INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING

Purpose

This publication helps you check your Connecticut income tax withholding and, if necessary, adjust your withholding. You should check your withholding once a year or if your tax situation changes to ensure you have the correct amount of Connecticut income tax withheld.

Why I Should Check My Withholding

In general, Connecticut income tax is withheld from your wages or from payments of nonpayroll amounts according to the information you provide to your employer on Form CT-W4, Employee's Withholding Certificate, or to your payer on Form CT-W4P, Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments. If the information you provide is not accurate, you may have too much or too little Connecticut income tax withheld from your income. If too much tax is withheld, you lose the use of money that may not be returned to you until you file a return showing you overpaid the tax. If too little tax is withheld, you may be subject to interest in addition to any tax due even if you file your return and pay the tax with your timely filed return. You may adjust your withholding at any time by completing and filing a new withholding form with your employer or payer.

When to Check My Withholding

Check your withholding early in the year. Compare the total tax to be withheld from your wages or nonpayroll amounts for the year with what you expect your Connecticut income tax liability will be for the year. Check your withholding again if the tax laws change during the year, or if any of the following apply to you:

- Your Withholding Code changes;
- Your filing status is married filing jointly and both you and your spouse have income subject to withholding. See Certain Married Individuals below;
- You have more than one source of income; or
- You have income not subject to Connecticut income tax withholding such as nonwage income, including interest, dividends, and capital gains.

Certain Married Individuals

If you and your spouse have income subject to withholding and select Withholding Code "A" on your withholding forms, you may refer to the supplemental tables on Pages 13 and 14 of this publication for an easy guide on how to adjust your withholding to avoid overwithholding or underwithholding. For a more precise calculation, follow the directions provided in the following sections.

Filing Jointly

If your filing status is married filing jointly, you must combine your income with your spouse's income and combine your withholding with your spouse's withholding when completing the worksheets in this publication.

How to Check My Withholding

You need a pay statement for a full pay period showing the amount of Connecticut income tax withheld and a copy of your most recently filed withholding form. Your employer or payer has your withholding form on file and can provide you with a copy. Once you have these documents:

1. Refer to Line 1 of your most recently filed withholding form to review your current Withholding Code.
 - a. If your Withholding Code for 2023 remains the same, see "2" below.
 - b. If your Withholding Code is different, complete a new withholding form using your correct Withholding Code.

Read all instructions for your withholding form carefully to ensure your withholding is correct. File the withholding form with your employer or payer. It is not necessary to go on to "2" below.

2. Complete Worksheet 1 on Page 6 to estimate your total 2023 Connecticut income tax liability. Then complete Worksheet 2 to compare your projected total 2023 Connecticut income tax liability with your projected 2023 Connecticut income tax withholding.

How to Increase My Withholding

Before you complete your withholding form, you should complete Worksheets 1 and 2 on Page 6 to help you determine if you need to change your withholding. Then complete the following steps to fill out a new withholding form:

1. Enter your Withholding Code on Line 1 of your new withholding form;
2. Enter the amount from Line 9b of Worksheet 2 on Line 2 of your new withholding form;
 - a. If there was an amount on Line 2 of your most recently filed withholding form, add that amount to the amount on Line 9b of Worksheet 2 and enter the total on Line 2 of your new withholding form.
 - b. If there was an amount on Line 3 of your most recently filed withholding form, subtract that amount from the amount on Line 9b of Worksheet 2. If the result is positive, enter the amount on Line 2. If the result is negative, enter the amount on Line 3.
3. Enter all other required information on your withholding form; and

4. Give the new withholding form to your employer or payer. Keep a copy for yourself. Do not send your withholding form to DRS.

Example 1: If your previously filed withholding form showed $3 on Line 2, and Line 9b of Worksheet 2 shows you should increase your current withholding by $5, enter $8 on Line 2 of your new withholding form.

How to Decrease My Withholding

Before decreasing the amount to be withheld, be sure you have enough Connecticut income tax withheld to meet your projected Connecticut income tax liability. Underwithholding may result in interest charges. See Informational Publication 2018(16), Estimated Connecticut Income Taxes.

Before you complete your withholding form, you should complete Worksheets 1 and 2 on Page 6 to help you determine if you need to change your withholding. Then complete the following steps to fill out a new withholding form:

1. Enter your Withholding Code on Line 1 of your new withholding form;
2. Enter the amount from Line 9b of Worksheet 2 on Line 3 of your new withholding form;
 - a. If there was an amount on Line 2 of your most recently filed withholding form, subtract that amount from the amount on Line 9b of Worksheet 2. If the result is positive, enter the amount on Line 2. If the result is negative, enter the amount on Line 3.
 - b. If there was an amount on Line 3 of your most recently filed withholding form, add that amount to the amount on Line 9b of Worksheet 2 and enter the total on Line 3 of your new withholding form.
3. Enter all other required information on your withholding form; and
4. Give the new withholding form to your employer or payer. Keep a copy for yourself. Do not send your withholding form to DRS.

Example 2: If your previously filed withholding form showed $3 on Line 2, and Line 9b of Worksheet 2 shows you should decrease your current withholding by $5, enter $2 on Line 3 of your new withholding form.

If too much Connecticut income tax is withheld in 2023, your overpayment of Connecticut income tax may be refunded to you when you file your 2023 Connecticut income tax return.

More Than One Source of Income

If you have more than one source of income, or your filing status is married filing jointly and your spouse also has income, you can adjust your withholding for one or more of the sources of income.

Before you complete your withholding form, you should complete Worksheets 1 and 2 on Page 6 to help you determine if you need to change your withholding. If the amount on Line 8b of Worksheet 2 is a positive amount, see How to Increase My Withholding on Page 3. If the amount on Line 8b of Worksheet 2 is a negative amount, see How to Decrease My Withholding on this page.

Income Not Subject to Withholding

If you have income not subject to withholding, you may wish to make estimated income tax payments instead of increasing your withholding. See IP 2018(16). Estimated income tax payments are made using Form CT-1040ES, Estimated Connecticut Income Tax Payment Coupon for Individuals.

Caution

In general, if you do not make timely installments of your required annual payment and the balance of your Connecticut income tax is $1,000 or more, you will be charged interest on the underpaid amount. You must make estimated income tax payments if:

1. Your Connecticut income tax, after taking into account your Connecticut tax withheld, and any Pass-Through Entity Tax Credit (PE Tax Credit) you are allowed to claim, is $1,000 or more; and
2. You expect your Connecticut income tax withheld (including any PE Tax Credit) to be less than your required annual payment for the 2023 taxable year.

Your required annual payment is the lesser of:

- 90% of the income tax shown on your 2023 Connecticut income tax return; or
- 100% of the income tax shown on your 2022 Connecticut income tax return if you filed a 2022 Connecticut income tax return that covered a 12-month period.

To avoid interest charges, make sure your estimate is as accurate as possible. You may prefer to pay 100% of the income tax shown on your 2022 Connecticut income tax return.

Exempt From Connecticut Withholding

You are exempt from Connecticut withholding if you expect to have no Connecticut income tax liability for the taxable year. You have no Connecticut income tax liability if your annual gross income is:

- $12,000 or less and your filing status is married filing separately;
- $15,000 or less and your filing status is single;
- $19,000 or less and your filing status is head of household; or
- $24,000 or less and your filing status is married filing jointly, or qualifying surviving spouse.

Gross Income means all income received in the form of money, goods, property, and services not exempt from federal income tax and any additions to income required to be reported on Form CT-1040, Connecticut Resident Income Tax Return, or Form CT-1040NR/PY, Connecticut Nonresident and Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return, Schedule 1, Modifications to Federal Adjusted Gross Income.

To claim exemption from Connecticut withholding, you must enter Withholding Code "E" on your withholding Form CT-W4, Line 1, or Form CT-W4P, Line 1

Under the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act (MSRRA), the income received by a military spouse for services performed in Connecticut is not considered Connecticut-sourced income if certain requirements are met.

See Informational Publication 2022(12), Connecticut Income Tax Information for Armed Forces Personnel and Veterans, for the requirements. A military service member's spouse claiming exemption under the MSRRA must claim the exemption on Form CT-W4.

When Will My New Withholding Form Go Into Effect

If the change is for the current year, your employer must withhold on the basis of your new withholding form no later than the start of the first pay period ending on or after the 30th day following the day on which you give your employer your new withholding form. If the change is for next year, your new withholding form will not take effect until next year.

INCOME TAX WORKSHEET 1 - INSTRUCTIONS

Line 1: Enter the amount of federal adjusted gross income you expect in 2023. You may use federal Form 1040ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals, as a worksheet to determine your federal adjusted gross income.

Line 2: Enter your total estimated Connecticut additions. See Form CT-1040 or Form CT-1040NR/PY, Schedule 1, Modifications to Federal Adjusted Gross Income, for information about Connecticut addition modifications.

Line 4: Enter your total estimated Connecticut subtractions which may include:

Social Security Benefit Adjustment: If your required Connecticut income tax return filing status is single or married filing separately, and you expect your 2023 federal adjusted gross income will be less than $75,000, enter as a subtraction the amount of federally taxable Social Security benefits you expect to report on your 2023 federal Form 1040, or federal Form 1040-SR, (Line 6b on the 2022 federal forms).

If your required Connecticut income tax return filing status is married filing jointly, qualifying surviving spouse, or head of household, and you expect your federal adjusted gross income will be less than $100,000, enter as a subtraction the amount of federally taxable Social Security benefits you expect to report on your 2023 federal Form 1040, or federal Form 1040-SR, (Line 6b on the 2022 federal forms).

If you expect your federal adjusted gross income will be above the threshold for your filing status, complete the Social Security Benefit Adjustment Worksheet on Page 12 and include the amount from Line F on Line 4.

If you receive pension and annuity income from a defined benefit plan, a 401(k), 403(b) or a 457 plan and your federal adjusted gross income is less than $100,000 (for married filing jointly or qualifying surviving spouse) or $75,000 (for all others), enter as a subtraction 56% of those amounts.

Subtraction Modification for Pension and Annuity Income: If your filing status is single, married filing separately, or head of household with federal adjusted gross income (AGI) for the taxable year of less than $75,000 or married filing jointly, or qualifying surviving spouse with federal AGI of less than $100,000, and you receive income from certain pensions and annuities, such as from a defined benefit plan, 401(k), 403(b) or 457(b) plans, exclude 100% of those amounts. If you receive Social Security benefits, and your filing status is single or married filing separately and your federal AGI is less than $75,000 (for single or married filing separately) or $100,000 (for married filing jointly, qualifying surviving spouse or head of household), exclude the amount of your Social Security. If your federal AGI is above these limits for your filing status, then exclude 75% of your total Social Security benefits.

IP 2023(7), Is My Connecticut Withholding Correct?

If you receive payments from the Teachers' Retirement System, exclude 50% of the amounts received. If your federal AGI is below the applicable threshold you may claim either the teachers' pension subtraction modification or the pension and annuity subtraction modification, whichever is greater.

See Form CT-1040 or Form CT-1040NR/PY, Schedule 1, for information about additional Connecticut subtraction modifications.

Line 5: Nonresidents and Part-Year Residents Only: If your Connecticut-sourced income is greater than your Connecticut adjusted gross income, enter your Connecticut-sourced income. See the instructions for Form CT-1040NR/PY for more information on Connecticut-sourced income.

Line 6: To calculate your estimated Connecticut income tax, complete the 2023 Tax Calculation Schedule on Page 6.

Line 7: Nonresidents and Part-Year Residents Only: If your Connecticut-sourced income is greater than or equal to your Connecticut adjusted gross income, enter 1.0000. If your Connecticut-sourced income is less than your Connecticut adjusted gross income, complete the following calculation and enter the result on Line 7.

Connecticut-Sourced Income

$$\frac{\text{Connecticut Adjusted Gross Income}}{\text{(Line 5 of Worksheet 1)}} = \text{Line 7}$$

Do not enter a number less than zero or greater than 1. If the result is less than zero, enter "0;" if greater than 1, enter 1.0000. Round to four decimal places.

Line 9: Residents and Part-Year Residents Only: Enter the estimated allowable credit for income taxes paid to other jurisdictions. Enter "0" if not applicable. See the instructions for Form CT-1040 or Form CT-1040NR/PY, Schedule 2, Credit for Income Taxes Paid to Qualifying Jurisdictions.

Line 11: If you expect to owe federal alternative minimum tax in 2023, you may also owe Connecticut alternative minimum tax. Enter your estimated Connecticut alternative minimum tax liability. See instructions for Form CT-6251, Connecticut Alternative Minimum Tax Return - Individuals.

Line 13: Enter the estimated allowable Connecticut income tax credit(s). Enter "0" if you are not entitled to a credit. (Credit for a prior year alternative minimum tax is not allowed if you entered an amount on Line 11.) See instructions for Schedule CT-IT Credit, Income Tax Credit Summary. Do not include any PE Tax Credit on this line.

Line 14: Subtract Line 13 from Line 12. Use this amount to complete Worksheet 2.

Supplemental Table

Married Couples Filing Jointly - Effective January 1, 2023

For married couples who both select Withholding Code "A" on Form CT-W4 (combined income is $100,500 or less).

Instructions

- Reading across the top of the table, select the approximate annual wage income of one spouse. Reading down the left column, select the approximate annual wage income of the other spouse. See Page 14 for the continuation of this table.
- At the intersection of the two numbers is an adjustment amount. This is a yearly adjustment amount.
- To calculate the adjustment for each pay period, complete the following worksheet.

Pay Period Table
If you are paid:	Pay periods in a year:
Weekly	52
Biweekly	26
Semi-monthly	24
Monthly	12
- If the adjustment is positive, enter the adjustment amount from Line 3C on Form CT-W4, Line 2, of one spouse. If the adjustment is negative, enter the adjustment amount in brackets from Line 3C on Form CT-W4, Line 3, of one spouse.

3A. Adjustment amount	3B. Pay periods in a year. See pay period table.
3C. Pay period adjustment: Divide Line 3A by Line 3B.
