

Existing Positions at Certain Regulatory Agencies Subject To Post-State Employment Prohibitions Revised December 2025

Introduction

The Code of Ethics for Public Officials generally prohibits public officials and state employees in certain regulatory agencies who hold positions with significant decision-making or supervisory responsibilities from accepting employment for one year after leaving state service with a business subject to regulation by their former agency. The prohibition is two years for certain employment in the gaming industry.

Public Act 21-164 requires that by November 1, 2021, and at least annually from then on, the heads of certain executive branch regulatory agencies or their designees to electronically submit to the Office of State Ethics (OSE) designations of all existing positions that are subject to these restrictions. They must do so in a manner the Citizen's Ethics Advisory Board prescribes and must make these designations in consultation with the OSE.

The agency head or designee must submit any newly created positions that are subject to these provisions, but not included in the annual submission to OSE, within 30 days after the position's creation. OSE is required to maintain a list of all designated positions and post it on its website.

The designation requirement applies to the Office of Health Strategy's Health Systems Planning Unit; Connecticut Siting Council; Department of Banking; Insurance Department; Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection; Liquor Control Division within the Department of Consumer Protection; the Public Utilities Regulatory Authority, including the Office of Consumer Counsel; and the Department of Consumer Protection.
