Introduction

Created on July 1, 2005, under Public Act 05-183, the Office of State Ethics (“OSE”) is an independent regulatory agency charged with administering and enforcing the Connecticut Codes of Ethics (“Ethics Codes”), which are found in Chapter 10 of the Connecticut General Statutes.

The OSE’s duties include educating all those covered by the Ethics Codes; interpreting and applying the Ethics Codes; investigating violations of, and otherwise enforcing, the Ethics Codes; and providing information to the public.

The OSE’s jurisdiction:

- Part I Code of Ethics for Public Officials
 General Statutes §§ 1-79 to 1-90a
- Part II Code of Ethics for Lobbyists
 General Statutes §§ 1-91 to 1-101a
- Part III Lobbying: Miscellaneous Provisions
 General Statutes §§ 1-101aa and 1-101bb
- Part IV Ethical Considerations Concerning Bidding and State Contracts
 General Statutes §§ 1-101mm to 1-101rr

The OSE Executive Director has overall responsibility for the welfare and effectiveness of the OSE, which has three divisions, the legal division, the enforcement division, and the administrative division.

The OSE’s governing body is the Citizen’s Ethics Advisory Board (“CEAB”), which has nine members appointed by the Governor and legislative leadership. The CEAB holds monthly meetings that are open to the public. A schedule of CEAB meeting dates, times, and locations is available at ct.gov/ethics.

CEAB Member Rules and Restrictions

CEAB Member Code of Conduct

Board members are advised to consult the General Counsel of the Office of State Ethics and/or the Connecticut General Statutes.

Citizen's Ethics Advisory Board Members are required to:

- Observe high standards of conduct to preserve the integrity and independence of the Citizen's Ethics Advisory Board and the Office of State Ethics.
- Respect and comply with the law, including the Code of Ethics for Public Officials, and always conduct oneself in a manner which promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the board and the Office of State Ethics.
- Be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in the law.
- Remain unswayed by partisan interests, public clamor or fear of criticism.
- Maintain order and decorum in proceedings of the board and Office of State Ethics.
- Be patient, dignified and courteous to all persons who appear in board or Office of State Ethics proceedings and with other persons with whom the members deal in their official capacities.
- Refrain from making any statement outside of a board or office proceeding, which would have a likelihood of prejudicing a board or Office of State Ethics proceeding or embarrassing a complainant or a respondent.
- Preserve confidences of complainants and respondents.
- Exercise independent professional judgment on behalf of the board and Office of State Ethics.
- Represent the board and Office of State Ethics competently.
- Recuse oneself from participating in any proceeding or matter that involves the member's appointing authority.
- Annually and timely file a statement of financial interests.

In addition to the revolving-door restrictions imposed upon all public officials by the State Code of Ethics, Board members also must comply with two additional revolving-door restrictions:

1. No former member of the board may represent any business or person, other than himself or herself, before the board for a period of one year following the end of such former member's service on the board. No business or person that appears before the board shall employ or otherwise engage the services of a former member of the board for a period of one year following the end of such former member's service on the board. General Statutes § 1-80 (k)
2. No member of the board may hold any other position in state employment for a period of one year following the end of such member's service on the board, including, but not limited to, service as a member on a state board or commission, service as a judge of the Superior Court or service as a state agency commissioner. The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to prohibit any former board member from holding a volunteer or unpaid position in state service within one year of the end of his or her service on the board. General Statutes § 1-80 (l)

Board members must also comply with requirements for filing Statements of Financial Interests (SFIs).

Citizens Ethics Advisory Board members are required to file statements of financial interests, pursuant to General Statutes § 1-83.,

CHAPTER 10 CODES OF ETHICS

PART I

CODE OF ETHICS FOR PUBLIC OFFICIALS

Sec. 1-80. Office of State Ethics. Citizen's Ethics Advisory Board. Members; appointment; qualifications; vacancies; compensation; restrictions. Hearings.

(a) There shall be established an Office of State Ethics. Said office shall consist of an executive director, general counsel, ethics enforcement officer and such other staff as hired by the executive director. Within the Office of State Ethics, there shall be the Citizen's Ethics Advisory Board that shall consist of nine members, appointed as follows: One member shall be appointed by the speaker of the House of Representatives, one member by the president pro tempore of the Senate, one member by the majority leader of the Senate, one member by the minority leader of the Senate, one member by the majority leader of the House of Representatives, one member by the minority leader of the House of Representatives, and three members by the Governor. Members shall be appointed to serve a four-year term commencing on October first of the year in which the prior four-year term expires. Any member may be reappointed. No more than five members shall be members of the same political party.

(b) All members shall be electors of the state. No member shall be a state employee. No member or employee of said board shall (1) hold or campaign for any public office; (2) have held public office or have been a candidate for public office for a three-year period prior to appointment; (3) hold office in any political party or political committee or be a member of any organization or association organized primarily for the purpose of influencing legislation or decisions of public agencies; or (4) be an individual who is a registrant as defined in subdivision (17) of section 1-91. For purposes of this subsection, "public office" does not include the offices of justice of the peace or notary public.

(c) Any vacancy on the board shall be filled by the appointing authority having the power to make the original appointment within thirty days.

(d) The board shall elect a chairperson who shall, except as provided in subsection (b) of section 1-82 and subsection (b) of section 1-93, preside at meetings of the board and a vice-chairperson to preside in the absence of the chairperson. Six members of the board shall constitute a quorum. Except as provided in subdivision (3) of subsection (a) of section 1-81, subsections (a) and

(b) of section 1-82, subsection (b) of section 1-88, subsection (e) of section 1-92, subsections (a) and (b) of section 1-93 and subsection (b) of section 1-99, a majority vote of the members shall be required for action of the board. The chairperson or any three members may call a meeting.
