Faces Of Our Fathers

October 8, 2014 • 9:30 AM

An innovative, non-competitive film event that highlights fathers and fatherhood. The short version of the films is designed to integrate the issues of fatherhood, while focusing on forgiving, stereotypes, street culture and responsibility.

Presentation Includes:

- 5 short films
- Audience Discussion, Question & Answer Periods After Each Film
- Panel Discussion with filmmakers Ulysses "Butch" Slaughter and Carla Morales and Scott W. Swartz, Associate Program Manager, The Fatherhood Initiative, Madonna Place
- The Faces of Our Fathers was founded by social entrepreneur Ulysses "Butch" Slaughter, who at age 12 listened as his mother Clarice was shot to death by his late father. Slaughter is a filmmaker and author and makes appearances nationally including the Dr. Phil Show and The Oprah Winfrey Network.
