

HORSE AUCTION INSTRUCTION

When a horse is no longer fit for GHG service, the FAS shall oversee the auction. All horses must be publicly advertised through various forms of media (including local newspapers, horse auction websites, horse magazines, etc.) in a manner to secure a competitive process by which the CTMD may divest the horse and generate revenue.

SAMPLE AD

The Connecticut Military Department is holding a horse auction for a SUPER CHARMING BAY DUTCH WARBLOOD GELDING NAMED "ROVER." Rover," an Outstanding Dutch Warmblood Gelding. He was born in 06 and 17.1HH in withers. Rover is as rock solid, quiet and as study as a horse can be. He is a little bit on the frisky side but knows his job and will go willingly. He is easy to sit, is patient and forgiving, not spooky, never bucked or reared. Rover is just a perfect horse. He has a super calm temperament and a very sweet disposition.

PLEASE FEEL FREE TO CALL, TEXT OR EMAIL [NAME OF FAS OR FAS/D, PHONE NUMBER, EMAIL]. THE MINIMUM BID IS $1,000 BUT MAY CONSIDER LOWER BIDS AS A GOOD HOME IS IMPORTANT. ALL INQUIRES ARE ANSWERED.
