

OWS Initiative: Women's Return to Work Economic Development Plan

OWS is in the process of aligning our partners with our initiatives

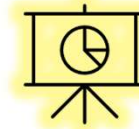

Special Act 22-22

- ✓ Understanding the Impact of COVID-19 on Women Returning to Work
- ✓ Establish Partnerships across institutions of Higher education, nonprofit organizations, professional business and childcare providers, and transit to promote women's return to work initiatives
- ✓ Business incentives to increase apprenticeship and internship opportunities for women

Identify and Align stakeholders within CoWaG and at key agencies

- ✓ Meeting with partner agencies including:
 - ✓ GWC DEI Committee to discuss challenges and opportunities
 - ✓ Office of Early Childhood to discuss childcare initiatives

Perform landscape analysis of existing resources and programs

- ✓ Analyzing national research, legislation, and models
- ✓ Resource mapping and braiding OWS initiatives including:
 - ✓ CareerConneCT
 - ✓ Regional Sector Partnerships (Good Jobs Challenge)

OWS Initiative: Women's Return to Work Economic Development Plan

We will collaborate with key stakeholders to design and implement inclusive return to work programs

