Superior Court

COURT OPERATIONS

The Superior Court is composed of 196 judges including the justices of the Supreme Court and the judges of the Appellate Court. Superior Court judges decide issues dealing with extremely serious problems affecting people's lives - their liberty, their children, their spousal relationships or their business relationships. This may involve the sentencing of a convicted defendant, the determination of which parent will raise a child, the awarding of damages to an accident victim or the question of whether a person should be taken off a life support system. Among other things, judges participate in the selection of jurors, advise defendants of their rights in criminal matters, set bail conditions for defendants, sentence defendants found guilty of a violation of state statute, grant dissolutions of marriage, hear and adjudicate cases involving child protection and juvenile delinquency and appoint counsel for indigent parties.

The Superior Court Operations Division supports the administration of justice by providing quality services and information to judges, the people it serves and the community. It ensures that courts have sufficient staff and resources to assist judges, family support magistrates and judicial officers in the resolution of disputes. Specialized staff maintain security in the courthouses, transport prisoners between places of confinement, assist with the collection of child support and provide information, compensation and advocacy services to people victimized by crime.

LEGAL SERVICES

Statutory Reference

C.G.S. Section 51-289, et seq.

Statement of Need and Program Objectives

To fulfill the state's constitutional obligation to provide counsel to indigent, accused persons.

To enable poor defendants to exercise their legal rights in criminal and juvenile courts by ensuring access to legal representation that the client otherwise could not afford.

Program Description

The public defender or staff is responsible for conducting the initial interview with an accused person to determine eligibility for services. The court, after considering the public defender's recommendation, makes the final determination and appoints the public defender as attorney for an indigent accused person. Assignments are made to investigators and social workers. Plea-bargaining, consultations and pre-trial conferences are completed and, as necessary, trials are conducted. Once pleas or verdicts are entered, pre-sentence interviews with probation and sentencing hearings take place. Post-trial proceedings, such as sentence modification, motions to correct illegal sentence pursuant to State v. Casiano, sentence review, appeal and habeas corpus may be instituted. If an appeal is brought, it may be assigned to the trial attorney, an attorney within the Legal Services Unit or a Special Public Defender specifically approved to handle appeals.

The Legal Services Unit supervises the processing and briefing of appeals, including appeals by special public defenders on a non-contractual basis. When necessary, this office also pursues appeals in federal court, including the U.S. Supreme Court. The Legal Services Unit also provides legal research assistance to the trial attorneys.

Within the overall representation of the client, the following other specialized services are provided: Habeas Corpus Unit handles post-conviction habeas corpus matters; Capital Defense and Trial Services Unit represents accused in death penalty cases; Psychiatric Defense Unit handles cases involving psychiatric issues and represents mentally-ill clients under the jurisdiction of the Psychiatric Security Review Board; Juvenile Post-Conviction and Re-Entry Unit represents convicted juveniles during their period of commitment to the Department of Children and Families; the CT Public Defender Innocence Project reviews claims of actual innocence from long-term prisoners in order to pursue exoneration if appropriate; and the Public Defender Social Worker Program specializes in presenting alternative dispositions to incarceration, and providing social work services including referrals to and collaboration with social service agencies, the Court Support Service Division, the Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services, and the Department of Correction.

MANAGEMENT SERVICES

Statutory Reference

C.G.S. Section 51-289, et seq.

Statement of Need and Program Objectives

To maintain effective legal representation for the poor by establishing and implementing policies and providing administrative services and training to the staff of 43 public defender offices and specialized units throughout the state.

Program Description

This unit operates a centralized system which directs activities, allocates resources and supervises the operations of the Public Defender Services Commission. Thirteen managers implement and direct overall policies established by a sevenmember governing commission.

Management Services approves and contracts with special public defenders to handle cases in which conflicts of interest preclude representation by a public defender. It also establishes fee schedules and pays these special public defenders for their services; compiles, analyzes and evaluates statistics with reference to caseload and case movement and establishes and maintains procedures and standards for full-time personnel and evaluates their performance.

The Unit institutes and conducts training programs for attorneys, investigators, social workers and secretarial staff; prepares operating budgets, manuals, reports and publications for the entire division and insures logistical support for all adult and juvenile courts throughout the state.

Management Services acts as liaison with other state agencies, including the Judicial Branch, the Division of Criminal Justice, the Department of Children and Families, the Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services, and the Department of Correction to assess and coordinate interrelated operations. It provides preliminary defense of its personnel in habeas corpus, grievance and professional liability actions; prepares and distributes legal research, memoranda and newsletters to all offices and provides special units of defense to respond to programs initiated by the Judicial Branch or the Division of Criminal Justice.

Management Services responds to and acts upon questions and complaints from the general public and individual clients; establishes programs to seek reimbursement from clients able to pay for all or a portion of legal services provided; develops procedures, maintains records, processes all financial actions of the division; purchases materials and equipment and handles the payment of expert witnesses.

LEGAL SERVICES

Statutory Reference

C.G.S. Section 46b-123c, d & e.

Statement of Need and Program Objectives

To fulfill the state's statutory obligation to provide competent counsel to children and indigent legal parties in Juvenile and Family Matters. To ensure that children who are the subject of neglect, custody and support proceedings receive competent and zealous advocacy and that poor respondents in such proceedings can exercise their legal rights by ensuring access to quality legal representation that the client otherwise could not afford.

Program Description

The Office of the Chief Child Protection Attorney receives and processes applications of private attorneys seeking a contract to perform legal and GAL services in Juvenile and/or Family Matters. Once an attorney is approved for a contract in Juvenile Matters they are required to attend pre-service training through the Center for Children's Advocacy in collaboration with the Chief Child Protection Attorney.

The Commission has secured several training opportunities for attorneys practicing in Juvenile Matters, including attendance at the National Association of Counsel for Children's Annual Child Protection Conference, a comprehensive legal training program offered throughout the fiscal year by the Center for Children's Advocacy, ongoing monthly course offerings in topics relevant to child protection through the Department of Children and Families' Training Academy and supplemental training opportunities with Lawyers for Children America.

The Chief Child Protection Attorney's office processes on average 50 requests per day for appointments of legal counsel from the 13 Juvenile Courts throughout the state submitted via an electronic request form created by Office's Administrative Services Coordinator. Non-emergency requests are processed by our paralegal within a 24-hour time period and the courts and attorneys are notified electronically of the appointment. Emergency appointments are handled by the Administrative Services Coordinator immediately.
