

---

STATE OF CONNECTICUT

---

TREASURER SHAWN T. WOODEN

OR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Sunday, July 26, 2020

CONTACT: Office of the Treasurer, Gabrielle Farrell, gabrielle.farrell@ct.gov

MONDAY: TREASURER SHAWN WOODEN TO HOLD PRESS CONFERENCE ON POLICE ACCOUNTABILITY BILL

Hartford, CT - On Monday, July 27, 2020, State Treasurer Shawn Wooden will hold a press conference urging the State Senate to pass the police accountability bill that passed the Connecticut House of Representatives on Friday. He will be joined by community, business, faith, local elected leaders and others dedicated to seeing meaningful police reform. On Tuesday, the police accountability bill is up for a vote in the Connecticut State Senate during a special session.

Media planning to attend can RSVP to gabrielle.farrell@ct.gov.

WHO:

- State Treasurer Shawn Wooden
- U.S. Senator Richard Blumenthal
- Mayor Suzette DeBeatham-Brown of Bloomfield
- Member of the Manchester Board of Education Tracy R. Patterson
- Chairman Rodney A. Butler of the Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation
- Chairman and CEO Alan Lazowski of LAZ Parking and Member of the National NAACP Board
- President Scott X. Esdaile of the Connecticut State Conference of NAACP Branches
- Reverend Anthony L. Bennett of Mount Aery Baptist Church in Bridgeport

WHEN: Monday, July 27, 2020 at 10:00AM ET

WHERE: State Office Building, 165 Capitol Avenue, Hartford, CT

Please note: The press conference will be held on the stairs facing Capitol Avenue, across from the Bushnell Performing Arts Center. We ask that everyone in attendance maintain 6ft. per social distancing guidelines and wear a mask.

###