STATE TREASURER SHAWN T. WOODEN ISSUES STATEMENT IN RESPONSE TO TEXAS SHOOTING

HARTFORD, CT - Today, State Treasurer Shawn T. Wooden released the following statement in response to the shooting in Uvalde, Texas:

Connecticut and Texas now share the pain and heartbreak of an unspeakable tragedy that should never have happened but continues to happen at an agonizing rate. As a father and as someone whose family has been personally impacted by gun violence, I am grief-stricken by yesterday's mass shooting at Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, Texas.

The tragedy in Texas marks the 213th mass shooting in 2022, as well as yet another incident involving a military style assault weapon. We continue to experience this senseless violence year after year, month after month, day after day, and yet, meaningful gun reform on a federal level has been stalled at every turn.

In Connecticut, in 2012, our state witnessed the devastating and senseless loss of 20 first-graders and 6 educators at Sandy Hook Elementary School. Our state legislature acted swiftly to strengthen our gun laws – by requiring universal background checks, expanding the assault weapons ban and banning of new high-capacity ammunition magazines. And in 2019, after years of stalled progress in trying to engage with gun makers on common sense gun reform, I divested the state's holdings in civilian firearms manufacturers and have continued to act to support responsible gun legislation and policies. We have done all that we can both as policy makers and as investors.

Now it's time for Congress to act. Listen to the pleas of parents, children, educators, law enforcement, health care professionals, corporate America and so many others. It's past time to pass universal background checks and common-sense gun safety legislation at the federal level.

Tragedies like what we saw in Texas and Connecticut, and so many other states, cannot continue to happen. We need to act now.

My family and I are praying for the families in Uvalde and all those impacted by gun violence.
