

The Town of Glastonbury is accepting applications from POSTC certified police officers. Out of state certified officers will be considered as long as they are eligible for comparative certification through POSTC. Current salary range is $78,166 - $100,755 (not including overtime). By January 2025, top end of salary range will be $103,521.60. A certified officer's starting salary may be higher depending on years of experience. The Town of Glastonbury offers an attractive benefit package including a defined benefit plan, health and dental insurance. Applicants must be at least 21 years old, a high school graduate or G.E.D., be a United States Citizen, hold a valid driver's license, and never have been convicted of a felony, class A or B misdemeanor, domestic violence crimes, or any act that would constitute perjury or false statement. The Glastonbury Police Department was the first CALEA accredited department in the state. We are seeking candidates who are committed to serving and protecting Glastonbury through professional, sensitive, collaborative policing, in partnership with our community. The Town of Glastonbury is an equal opportunity employer; minorities and women are strongly encouraged to apply. For additional information about our department, please click here . Candidates must successfully complete a written test, interview with the Police Chief, a background investigation, a polygraph examination, a psychological interview, and a medical exam including a drug screening. Hired candidates shall refrain from smoking at any time as a condition of employment. For questions regarding the application or hiring process, please contact Rajwant Saeed in the Human Resources office at 860-652-7502, or by email at rajwant.saeed@glastonbury-ct.gov . Click here for additional information.