About the New London Police Department:

The City of New London Police Department is located in the South East corner of the state. The New London Police Department covers only about 6 square miles but sees a wide variety of call types. New London established its first permanent police force in 1868 when a "nightwatch" and police station were approved by city council. In the late 1800s and into the early 1900s, the busy port of New London doubled in population, reaching almost 20,000 by 1910 with just 17 patrolmen keeping order. Currently, New London has about 28,000 residents and a staff of 65 police officers.

The NLPD has been granted by City Council to have a total of 80 sworn officers in the department. The New London Police Departments staff consists of a Chief, a Patrol Captain, a Support Services Captain, a Investigations Captain, three Patrol Lieutenants, nine Patrol Sergeants, a Records Sergeant, a Training Sergeant, a Detective Sergeant, six promoted Detectives, a Youth Investigator, a Fleet Officer, a Community Wellness Officer, a Evidence Officer, a Vice and Narcotics Section, an Accident Reconstruction Team, an Emergency Response Team, a K-9 team, Police Motorcycle operators and many other opportunities.
