 - a. Social Justice Advisory Committee
 - i. Background Investigation Manual Presented by Ken Barone
 1. Ken Barone presents a background investigation guideline for the State of Connecticut. The committee thought it would be helpful to develop uniform guidelines on how to assess for background checks and if bias can be ruled out. The California Post Council adopted guidelines for background check for new law enforcement. Ken's team reviewed and met with the individuals in California. A 120 page document outlines best practices, assessing moral character and integrity with the goal of using the document endorsed by Council to develop a training program for background investigators. Ken is seeking endorsement from Post Council for this document. Ken also recognizes Dr. Mark Kurshner for his work on the psychological areas of the document.

2. Chief Riddick presents a motion for Post Council to review the document. Lieutenant Maynard seconds the motion. Commissioner Higgins asks that Connecticut State Police be involved in the evaluation of the document. Chief Melanson also discusses the operational issues. Chief Mello will create a review panel with all stake holders to meet prior to the next meeting. Commissioner Higgins questions agencies who hire out for background investigations and if this would affect those agencies. The motion to review passes.

NEW BUSINESS

- 1. Chief Melanson states he has spearheaded a group related to adult sexual assault. After the film Victim/Suspect on Netflix, Connecticut was identified as having departments who were implicated in faulty investigating in the film. Chief Melanson requests a committee to create a model policy to perform adult sexual assault investigations. Chief Mello states he will put something together. Chief Melanson and Chief Riddick will co-chair. Officer Cotto offers to participate.

OLD BUSINESS

- 1. Chief Mello presents related to EMR in the curriculum committee. He states the item was removed contingent to a replacement plan in the last Post Council meeting. Options included recruits who needed EMR returning after basic training, departments handling it on their own, and POST creating classes to be offered in person at POST. Chief Spagnolo states Waterbury Police Department was contacted asking if they are EMR certified. Because they are not the first responders they do not need to be. Chief Spagnolo encourages departments who do not know their status, that they should look into this.
