COURSE ANNOUNCEMENT

The Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection, Police Officer Standards and Training Council's Field Services Training Division, is offering a three-day (3) training seminar titled "Simulation-Based Training for Command Post Personnel." The training session is scheduled for January 3, 2023 to January 5, 2023, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., at the Connecticut Police Academy, 285 Preston Avenue, Meriden, CT. The course will be presented by BOWMAC Educational Services/RSI, Inc.

This course, which is designed for agency administrators, managers and supervisors will strengthen response capabilities and address issues of Unified Command. This course will cement the Multi-Jurisdictional, Multi-Disciplinary aspects of the implementation of Unified Command that are needed and required in larger, regional events.

This is a management level course designed to provide the training necessary to develop plans, policies, and procedures to manage the response to any type of critical incident in the participants' jurisdictions. The course offers a unique blend of classroom presentations, case studies, and practical exercises on a ninety-six (96) square foot model city. It addresses, in detail, the considerations required to identify and address in a jurisdiction's plans for an all-hazards response to a critical incident and how to effectively integrate ICS/NIMS and Unified Command principles to that local response.

This course will be open to include Fire, EMS, Municipal Officials, and State Emergency Management personnel (approximately 1/3 of the seats). These are the responders that work together at these types of events/incidents. Multiple disciplines from the same municipality are welcomed and encouraged.

DISCLAIMER: The Police Officer Standards and Training Council (POSTC) makes every effort, within its ability and resources, to provide the highest quality, most relevant in-service training programs available at minimum cost to all Connecticut police officers and agencies. However, POSTC does not provide legal advice, and does not endorse the accuracy or completeness of specific in-service training programs provided by each of its many contractors and training providers. The materials and opinions of individual providers offered during the course of in-service training are those of the instructor alone, and do not necessarily represent the position of the Police Officer Standards and Training Council or the State of Connecticut. Given the multitude of disparate factual scenarios with which law enforcement personnel are presented in the discharge of their official duties, students and sponsoring agencies are strongly advised and encouraged to seek the advice and counsel of their own legal advisors before implementing concepts or adopting specific measures discussed or recommended during in-service training sessions.
