COURSE ANNOUNCEMENT

The Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection, Police Officer Standards and Training Council's Field Services Training Division is offering a two (2) day, training seminar on "Use of Force Investigations - Ensuring Effective and Constitutional Policing." This training session is scheduled for Thursday, July 14, 2022 to Friday, July 15, 2022, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Connecticut Police Academy, 285 Preston Avenue, Meriden, CT. The seminar will be presented by Eric Daigle of the Daigle Law Group.

This two-day seminar is designed for all levels of law enforcement supervisors and investigators from sergeant to chief. The seminar will focus on investigating use of force standards under proper use of force policy, federal Constitutional law, and common police practices.

The use of force civil liability portion of the seminar reviews the federal standards of 42 USC Section 1983 litigation against law enforcement officers, command staff, and municipalities. The training also focuses on the analysis of standards applicable to supervising and conducting use of force investigations. This training reviews and discusses the legal standards applicable to Section 1983 actions to include Fourth Amendment violations and the practices under 42 USC § 14141.

The training will include a review of investigating force operations and policy standards to include:

- Responsibility for investigating use of force incidents.
- Detailed review of force levels.
- Instruction and response to each applicable level of force.
- Supervisory responsibilities including required response.

Also covered is how to develop a reportable use of force form, how officers should complete the form and what supervisors should be looking for on review. Through lecture, video instruction and table-top exercises, attendees will learn the importance of drafting use of force reports under the proper constitutional and case law standards. Each element of proper force investigation will be analyzed.

The class is limited to forty (40) attendees. Please complete a registration form from the web and email it to Brian Enns at Brian.Enns@ct.gov no later than June 10, 2022. If you have any questions, please contact the Field Services Division at 203-427-2626.

Students successfully completing the course will receive Review Training Credit in the following area:

- Area 200 Police and the Law (13 hours)

Training Officers: Please be sure to include your department email address and the email of the student to be enrolled on all applications to assure prompt communications of all in-service training matters.

Lunch may be purchased at nearby restaurants. Proper, professional business attire required.

DISCLAIMER: The Police Officer Standards and Training Council (POSTC) makes every effort, within its ability and resources, to provide the highest quality, most relevant in-service training programs available at minimum cost to all Connecticut police officers and agencies. However, POSTC does not provide legal advice, and does not endorse the accuracy or completeness of specific in-service training programs provided by each of its many contractors and training providers. The materials and opinions of individual providers offered during the course of in-service training are those of the instructor alone, and do not necessarily represent the position of the Police Officer Standards and Training Council or the State of Connecticut. Given the multitude of disparate factual scenarios with which law enforcement personnel are presented in the discharge of their official duties, students and sponsoring agencies are strongly advised and encouraged to seek the advice and counsel of their own legal advisors before implementing concepts or adopting specific measures discussed or recommended during in-service training sessions.
