COURSE ANNOUNCEMENT

The Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection, Police Officer Standards and Training Council’s Field Services Training Division is providing a series of 2-hour Use-of-Force “Train the Trainer” (T-t-T) Refresher sessions on the POSTC Use-of-Force Training Program. This training is meant for instructors who previously attended the full 4-hour training class and need the mandatory annual refresher. The training is scheduled for Friday, April 5, 2024, from 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM. The training will take place at the Connecticut Police Academy, 285 Preston Avenue, Meriden, CT at on the dates and at the times listed below:

This course is required for instructors who already have the 4-hour initial training and are teaching all subcategories within the following subject areas; 301, 302, and 306, as well as endorsement areas 203, 309, and 312.

The course revisits the Model Policy covering all components of the Policy and related legal, moral, and ethical requirements and expectations.

Attendance is limited to fifty (50) attendees. Please complete a registration form from the web and email it to William Tanner at William.Tanner@ct.gov no later than close of business on Friday, March 15, 2024. If you have any questions, please contact the Field Services Division at 203-427-2625.

Students successfully completing the course will receive Review Training Credit in the following areas:

- Area 209 Use-of-Force (2 hours)

The uniform Dress Code for POST In-Service training (General Notice 23-02) will be in effect. We ask that all training supervisors inform assigned personnel that they are required to dress accordingly.

Training Officers: Please be sure to include your department email address and the email AND POST ID of the student to be enrolled (For all sworn personnel) on all applications to assure prompt communications of all in-service training matters regarding this training.

DISCLAIMER: The Police Officer Standards and Training Council (POSTC) makes every effort, within its ability and resources, to provide the highest quality, most relevant in-service training programs available at minimum cost to all Connecticut police officers and agencies. However, POSTC does not provide legal advice, and does not endorse the accuracy or completeness of specific in-service training programs provided by each of its many contractors and training providers. The materials and opinions of individual providers offered during the course of in-service training are those of the instructor alone, and do not necessarily represent the position of the Police Officer Standards and Training Council or the State of Connecticut. Given the multitude of disparate factual scenarios with which law enforcement personnel are presented in the discharge of their official duties, students and sponsoring agencies are strongly advised and encouraged to seek the advice and counsel of their own legal advisors before implementing concepts or adopting specific measures discussed or recommended during in-service training sessions.
