COURSE ANNOUNCEMENT

The Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection, Police Officer Standards and Training Council's Field Services Training Division in partnership with Eastern Connecticut State University (ECSU) is providing a two (2) part seminar entitled Anti-Racism Train-the-Trainer that will be held on Monday, April 21, 2025, and Monday May 5, 2025, from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM each day. Both sessions must be attended to successfully complete the course, obtain POST credit, and the ability to apply for the endorsement. Dr. William Lugo, PhD and Dr. Tuesday Cooper, PhD. will be the instructors for this training.

The training will take place in the Johnson Room of the J. Eugene Smith Library at the Eastern Connecticut State University, 83 Windam Street, Willimantic, CT 06226.

The library is centrally located on campus, next to the university clock tower. From the main entrance of the library, officers may proceed up the stairs to the second floor. The entrance to the Johnson Room is in this main foyer area, before heading into the library proper.

Weapons: Must be covered if not in uniform.

Parking: Because of the number of attendees, officers are asked to park in one of the two parking garages on the north side of the campus. They are easily accessible from either Charter Oak Road or Eastern Road. No temporary parking permits will be necessary. The ECSU Police Department has asked that officers DO NOT park in the library parking lot in the spaces reserved for commuters and faculty.

Training Officers: Please be sure to include your department email address and the email AND POST ID (Sworn personnel) of the student to be enrolled on all applications to ensure prompt communications of all in-service training matters.

DISCLAIMER: The Police Officer Standards and Training Council (POSTC) makes every effort, within its ability and resources, to provide the highest quality, most relevant in-service training programs available at minimum cost to all Connecticut police officers and agencies. However, POSTC does not provide legal advice, and does not endorse the accuracy or completeness of specific in-service training programs provided by each of its many contractors and training providers. The materials and opinions of individual providers offered during the course of in-service training are those of the instructor alone, and do not necessarily represent the position of the Police Officer Standards and Training Council or the State of Connecticut. Given the multitude of disparate factual scenarios with which law enforcement personnel are presented in the discharge of their official duties, students and sponsoring agencies are strongly advised and encouraged to seek the advice and counsel of their own legal advisors before implementing concepts or adopting specific measures discussed or recommended during in-service training sessions.
