

DE-ESCALATION TRAINING PROGRAM

WHAT IS THE PROGRAM?

This project was made possible with a grant from the US DOJ COPS Office to the University of New Haven, grant #15JCOPS-22-GK-03552-PPSE. This federally funded program will promote de-escalation tactics within law enforcement. The primary goal is to deliver the most advanced de-escalation training curated by research, innovation, and implementation of best practices.

WHAT WILL YOU DO?

You will attend a free, one-week training program to become a trainer. Once training is successfully completed, you would provide training to other officers and become a trainer for the Northeast Regional Center, as needed.
