

Connecticut’s Approved K-3 Reading Curriculum Models, Programs, and Compendiums

The K-3 curriculum models, programs, and compendiums, listed below in alphabetical order, are approved for use by Connecticut districts until June 30, 2027, as they meet the expectations of Connecticut legislation and scored in the Meets Expectations range by other credible comprehensive literacy review processes.

As new editions of the Connecticut Approved K-3 Reading Curriculum Models/Programs are available, the Center for Literacy Research and Reading Success shall conduct internal reviews to ensure the new editions continue to meet the expectations of Connecticut legislation.
