VI. Report of the Chair

- Mr. Taylor thanked Board members who attended the Governor's bill-signing ceremony earlier this week, and for the Board's support throughout the legislative session.
- The Board has selected August 15, 2012, as the date for its annual retreat. The retreat planning committee will begin preparations this week.
- Mr. Taylor, Mr. Jones and Mr. Wright attended the April 25 event at the Legislative Office Building with Dr. Paul Hill.

VII. Report of the Commissioner

Commissioner Pryor reported on the following:

- The components of the final legislation, Senate Bill 458. A copy of the Commissioner's presentation is enclosed in the official file of this meeting.
- The new legislation provides $39.5 million in state aid to the Alliance Districts, the 30 lowest-achieving school districts in Connecticut. Before they can receive these new funds, Alliance Districts must submit plans to the Department describing credible plans to increase student achievement. The State Board of Education will have an opportunity to issue guidelines for this approval process at an upcoming meeting. Commissioner Pryor reported that he plans to provide preliminary information to superintendents and chief elected municipal officials of Alliance Districts to facilitate their ability to begin to craft these plans. A copy of the Commissioner's overview is enclosed in the official file of this meeting.

- The implementation of Public Act 11-136, regarding the definition of excused and unexcused absences. The Department continues to review other state's policies as well as local district policies on excused and unexcused absences. The Department will host a school attendance forum to solicit input from stakeholders on June 4, 2012. This collective information will be presented to the Board for discussion at its June 6, 2012, meeting, and a recommended definition of excused vs. unexcused absences will be presented to the Board for adoption at its July 11, 2012, meeting.
- Dr. Diane Ullman, Superintendent of the Simsbury Public Schools, has been appointed as the Interim Chief Talent Officer for the State Department of Education.

VIII. Connecticut Technical High School Matters (CTHSS)

Patricia Ciccone, Superintendent of Schools, Connecticut Technical High School System, reported on the following:

- preparations underway to address the provisions of the recently adopted legislation; extended day programming for students who are affiliated with the Department of Children and Families (DCF) and other targeted, under-served populations of adolescents and adults;
- current vacancies within the CTHSS;
- the CTHSS collaboration with East Hartford public schools and their plans to build two trades into their Synergy school;
- the bonding process to date;
- the school system's involvement in cross agency efforts to grow and sustain Connecticut's workforce (Workforce Development Council, Department of Economic and Community Development, Department of Labor, Connecticut Apprenticeship Council); and
- upcoming graduation ceremonies. Board members were invited to attend the graduation ceremonies.
