

CONNECTICUT'S MISSION:
EMPOWER EVERY LEARNER'S JOURNEY

Human Resources Certification Webinar: Temporary Authorizations

On Friday, October 2, 2026, from 1:00 - 2:00 p.m., the Bureau of Educator Standards and Certification is hosting a webinar for district human resources staff members regarding certification updates, understanding available temporary authorization pathways and district responsibilities, and educator preparation program considerations. Join us as we kick off the 2026-27 school year with up-to-date information on certification requirements and human resource best practices.

Please access the link below to register for the Human Resources Certification Webinar focused on Temporary Authorizations.

Connecticut State Department of Education \(SDE\) Events Calendar

Once registered, you may select the option to add the meeting to your calendar and you will receive a confirmation email.

We look forward to sharing updates at this virtual session on September 18th! If you are unable to attend, the recording of the webinar will be posted on the School Districts page on the CSDE website for future viewing.