

Restart

By Gordon Korman

Imagine you are in the position that Chase Ambrose finds himself in at the beginning of the book—you have to start over as a new person. Who would you be? What would you change about yourself, and why?

---

---

---

Aaron and Bear are not nice guys, but they suffered a loss. What did they lose? Do you feel sorry for them? Why or why not? Explain your answer.

---

---

---

Shoshanna's idea to bring her brother Joel back to Hiawasse Middle School is a risk, but it pays off. In what ways does Joel benefit from coming back to the school?

---

---

---

For Chase, getting his memory back also means solving a mystery. What is Chase trying to figure out about his accident, and how does he do it? What are the clues that help him along the way?

---

---

---

Chase's dad says, "... everybody has stupid moments. The trick is not to let a few bad moments cost you the game." Explain how this applies both to sports and to life.

---

---

---

---

Restart

By Gordon Korman

One of the interesting things about this book is that the story is told from multiple points of view. In other words, different characters' voices combine to tell the tale of what happened to Chase Ambrose (including Chase's, of course). Fill in the chart below with quotes to show how the different characters feel about Chase at the beginning of the book and at the end of it.

Character	Quotes
Shoshanna	Beginning:  End:
Brendan	Beginning:  End:
Aaron	Beginning:  End:
Joel	Beginning:  End: