In life, we all face consequences for our actions. This theme is developed as Lyzer the Miser had to face the consequences when he foolishly fell for Shrewd Todie's trick. As a result of his greed, his valuables were lost and his reputation was scarred. The rabbi said, "If you accept nonsense when it brings you profit, you must also accept nonsense when it brings you loss." Students will examine how in life we often make choices which at times may lead to negative consequences.
