FROM: Charlene M. Russell-Tucker, Commissioner of Education CRJ

DATE: April 27, 2022

SUBJECT: 2023 Anne Marie Murphy Paraeducator of the Year Award

With the support of the State Board of Education, it is my honor to recognize and appreciate Connecticut (CT) paraeducators. Paraeducators are instrumental in supporting students in the various aspects of the educational process, including their overall well-being. As Governor Lamont has declared April 6, 2022, Paraeducator Appreciation Day in CT, I have heard inspiring stories of the passion and commitment of paraeducators and the service they provide to students, their families, and their school communities.

As the Connecticut State Department of Education (CSDE) begins the selection process for the Anne Marie Murphy Paraeducator of the Year Award we recognize the important role of paraeducators in supporting students academically, socially, and emotionally. This award is named in honor of Anne Marie Murphy, a paraeducator who lost her life at Sandy Hook Elementary School in 2012. The program honors one paraeducator who has demonstrated exceptional skill and dedication in the performance of their job, thereby earning that person the respect and admiration of other paraeducators, students, teachers, administrators, co-workers, and parents. Superintendents and school directors are invited to identify one district paraeducator of the year to apply for this award.

The 2023 Anne Marie Murphy Paraeducator of the Year will be honored at the 2023 Teacher of the Year Ceremony, which will take place in fall 2022.

The 2023 Anne Marie Murphy Paraeducator of the Year application can be found using the following link: 2023 Anne Marie Murphy Paraeducator of the Year Award. All submissions must be received by June 30, 2022. In order to be eligible, the paraeducator of the year selected by your district must complete the entire application, be serving as a paraeducator who assists teachers in the delivery of instruction and related services to students and will serve in a paraeducator role for the 2022-23 school year.

Eligibility

Connecticut defines paraeducator as follows: a paraeducator is an employee who assists teachers and/or other certified professionals or therapists in the delivery of instructional and related services to students. The paraeducator works under the direct supervision of the teacher and/or other certified or licensed professional(s). The ultimate responsibility for the design, implementation, and evaluation of instructional programs, including assessment of student progress, is a collaborative effort between certified and licensed staff.

Only paraeducators who assist teachers in the delivery of instruction and related services to students are eligible for this award.

Each district may identify only one paraeducator of the year annually to apply for the Anne Marie Murphy Paraeducator of the Year award. Only the district superintendent or school principal should forward the application link to the district-selected paraeducator of the year.

Selection of the district paraeducator of the year should be made without regard to race, color, religious creed, sex, age, national origin, ancestry, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability (including, but not limited to, intellectual disability, past or present history of mental disorder, physical disability or learning disability), genetic information, or any other basis prohibited by Connecticut state and/or federal nondiscrimination laws.

Selection Criteria

Each district applicant will be evaluated based on six criteria adapted from the National Resource Center for Paraeducators (NRCP) Model, which Connecticut selected as a framework for articulating key competencies for Connecticut paraeducators. The model defines six primary areas of responsibilities for paraeducators:

1. Assisting teachers/providers with building and maintaining effective instructional teams.
2. Assisting teachers/providers with maintaining learner-centered supportive environments.
3. Supporting teachers/providers with planning and organizing learning experiences.
4. Assisting teachers/providers with engaging students in learning and assisting in instruction.
5. Assisting teachers/providers with assessing learner needs, progress, and achievement.
6. Meeting standards of professional and ethical conduct.

Additional information regarding this framework can be located in the Connecticut Guidelines for Training and Support of Paraeducators, pages 29-37.
