Join us for a day of professional learning focused on aligning practice with the CT Guidelines for Educator and Leader Evaluation and Support. This conference will equip educators, school and district leaders, and professional development and evaluation committees with the tools and insights needed to drive growth through effective goal setting, meaningful feedback, and high-quality learning plans.

Welcoming Remarks

Dr. Miguel Cardona, 12th U.S. Secretary of Education, lifelong educator and former teacher, principal, and Connecticut Commissioner of Education.

Featured Keynote Speakers

Dr. Joellen Killion, renowned expert with over 30 years of experience in professional learning, senior advisor to Learning Forward, and prolific author and thought leader whose work focuses on collaborative learning, instructional coaching, and results-driven educator growth.

Mr. Tabari Wallace, award-winning educational leader, passionate advocate for school equity and student success, former Principal of the Year and Special Advisor for Principal Engagement in North Carolina, and co-founder of the Assistant Principal Accelerator Cohort.

The Connecticut State Department of Education is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer.
