

MASTERY-BASED LEARNING IN CONNECTICUT

WHAT YOU BUILD

Essential Elements

- Advancement upon demonstrated mastery
- Rigorous graduation requirements and college- and career-ready competencies
- Transparent, measurable learning outcomes
- Timely and differentiated support
- Authentically aligned assessments

HOW IT IS EXPERIENCED

Personalized Experiences For Students

- Portfolios of work
- Exhibitions of learning
- Flexible learning pathways
- Variety of technology and resources
- Student ownership of learning
- Hands-on learning

- Equitable access and opportunities
- High expectations for all students
- Well-rounded learning
- Work habits reported separately from academics

VALUES & ASSUMPTIONS

- Multiple, holistic accountability indicators
- Focus on student growth
- Strong partnerships to improve teaching and learning
- Meaningful engagement