List of Acceptable Foods and Beverages

List 11: Fruits and Vegetables

List 11: Fruits and Vegetables includes commercial products that meet the CNS fruits and vegetables category, such as fresh, frozen, canned, and dried fruits and vegetables.

Exempt from all CNS nutrient standards: 1) fresh and frozen fruits and vegetables with no added ingredients except water; 2) canned fruits with no added ingredients except water or that are packed in 100 percent juice, extra light syrup, or light syrup, all without added artificial sweeteners, nonnutritive sweeteners or sugar alcohols and fats (including chemically altered fat substitutes); and 3) low sodium/no salt added canned vegetables with no added fats, nonnutritive sweeteners, or sugar alcohols. These foods are identified in the "Product code and notes" column below.

Exempt from sugars standards: Dried whole fruits or vegetables, dried whole fruit or vegetable pieces, and dehydrated fruits or vegetables, all without added sweeteners (including nutritive sweeteners, nonnutritive sweeteners, and sugar alcohols), and fats (including (including chemically altered fat substitutes). The total sugars content and percent of sugars by weight for 100 percent fruit products that exceed the limits are indicated in blue, and these products are identified as "100% fruit" in the "Product code and notes" column.
