

Meal Pattern Exemption Request Form for Residential Child Care Institutions in the National School Lunch Program

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) meal patterns for the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) include different daily and weekly amounts of the food components for three age/grade groups (K-5, 6-8 and 9-12). In accordance with the flexibilities allowed by USDA Memo SP 38-2012 and USDA Memo 48-2013, the USDA allows residential child care institutions (RCCIs) to serve the meal pattern for highest age/grade group in residence to all students (all age/grade groups) when the RCCI meets either of the conditions below:

- Exemption condition 1: The RCCI meets the following three criteria: 1) is a juvenile detention or correctional facility; 2) consists of more than one age/grade group; and 3) has legitimate safety concerns or state juvenile justice laws or regulations related to offering meals with varying amounts of food within the same meal period.
- Exemption condition 2: The RCCI is not a juvenile detention or correctional facility but can demonstrate operational limitations to separating age/grade groups, and can show legitimate safety concerns if students are served meals with different portion sizes.

Eligible RCCIs may request a meal pattern exemption by e-mailing this completed form to their school nutrition team member at the Connecticut State Department of Education (CSDE).
