Updated Civil Rights Complaint Procedures for the SFSP

As a reminder, sponsors participating in the SFSP are required to have procedures in place to address any civil rights complaints that may occur. The CSDE's document, Civil Rights Complaint Procedures for the Summer Food Service Program (dated July 2026), assists sponsors in handling any complaints received at the local level.

CACFP Civil Rights Forms and Resources

The SFSP civil rights forms and resources are available in the "Civil Rights Requirements for the SFSP" section of the CSDE's Civil Rights for Child Nutrition Programs webpage.

Guide

- Civil Rights Requirements for the SFSP

Forms

- Sample Participant Data Collection Form: Available in Albanian, Arabic, English, Haitian Creole, Portuguese, Simplified Chinese, and Spanish
- Summary Form for SFSP Civil Rights Beneficiary Data Collection

As a reminder, SFSP sponsors are required to conduct civil rights beneficiary data collection once during the site's operations. Site staff must provide the Civil Rights Beneficiary Data Collection Form to SFSP participants for them to self-identify their race and ethnicity.

Site staff must share with participants that providing this information is optional. Meals cannot be withheld if a participant does not want to provide the information. It is important to share with participants that the collection of civil rights beneficiary data is used to ensure all races and ethnicities residing in area of the site have equal access to Summer Meals. For example, if a particular race or ethnicity who lives close to the site is not participating in Summer Meal sites in their community, the sponsor may need to conduct outreach to ensure individuals know the Summer Meals site is operating in their community.

Summer Meals Updates 2026

As a reminder, the USDA requires that SFSP sponsors must provide annual civil rights training for all frontline staff who interact with applicants or participants, as well as supervisors of frontline staff. Training is required so that individuals involved in all levels of administration of programs that receive Federal financial assistance understand civil rights-related laws, regulations, procedures, and directives. For questions, please contact the Summer Meals staff.

Updated Seamless Summer Option (SSO) Food Service Review Form

An updated version (dated July 2026) of the Seamless Summer Option \(SSO\) Food Service Review Form is available. Please discard any prior versions and replace them with this version.

School food authorities (SFAs) must complete this form for each site during the first four weeks of SSO operation. Monitors are required to be at the site before operation begins until the end of service. Maintain this form on file for the administrative review of the school nutrition programs, according to the U.S Department of Agriculture's (USDA) records retention requirements. For more information, refer to the CSDE's resource, Records Retention Requirements for the School Nutrition Programs.

Turnip the Beet! High Quality Summer Meals Award Program

The USDA's Turnip the Beet Award recognizes outstanding Summer Meal Program sponsors across the nation who work hard to offer high quality meals to children that are appetizing, appealing, and nutritious during the summer months.

Summer meals are critical in the lives of millions of our nation's youth, whose risk for food insecurity increases during the summer months when they no longer have access to the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) and the School Breakfast Program (SBP). Summer Meal Programs, including the Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) and the Seamless Summer Option (SSO) of the NSLP, present the opportunity to help alleviate summertime food insecurity and positively impact children's growth and development by offering nutritious meals and encouraging children to develop healthy habits at a young age. High quality summer meals provide daily energy and help make sure children are healthy and ready to learn when they return to school in the fall.

The Turnip the Beet Award was created to showcase sponsors who are going above and beyond to ensure that children in their care are receiving high-quality meals that are both nutritious and appetizing.

Second Lady Usha Vance's 2026 Summer Reading Challenge

The USDA FNA invites Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) and Seamless Summer Option (SSO) sponsoring organizations to join in promoting Second Lady Usha Vance's 2026 Summer Reading Challenge.

The 2026 Summer Reading Challenge aims to build strong literacy skills, and, like summer meals, help ensure that children go back to school confident and prepared to learn. Participation is simple: From June 1 through September 4, children entering grades K-8 may read any 12 books and share a reflection to qualify for prizes, including a chance to visit Washington D.C.

Posting flyers at meal sites or sharing the Reading Log with children as they pick up their meals are easy ways to get started. Through partnerships with school and public libraries, sponsors can provide books for students to read while they eat their meals. Sponsors may also conduct book drives by asking members of the community to donate used books, or work with local literacy organizations, to provide books that students can take home with them. Lastly, some friendly competition (and future bragging rights) might be encouraged by highlighting the Summer Reading Challenge Leaderboard.

Additional information and Summer Reading Logs can be found on the Summer Reading Challenge webpage.

New USDA Webpage: Child Nutrition Programs Food Industry Toolkit

The USDA's new webpage, Child Nutrition Programs Food Industry Toolkit, consolidates Team Nutrition resources dedicated to food industry partners. These resources support food products available to organizations operating the school nutrition programs, the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP), and the Summer Food Service Program (SFSP). Resources are grouped by topic, including child nutrition (CN) labels, product formulation statements, crediting, and more. Ideal for orienting new food industry staff and refreshing existing partners, this toolkit aims to provide all relevant resources in one place and reduce the time needed to access information that supports the USDA's child nutrition programs.

SFSP Claim Submission Schedule

The chart below summarizes the CSDE's claim submission schedule for summer 2026, as indicated in Operational Memorandum No. 01-26 – SFSP: 2026 SFSP Reimbursement Rates and Schedule for Submitting Online Reimbursement Claim Data. Sponsors must adhere to the claim submission schedule to ensure timely payment of claims. The recommended timeframe for submitting claims is the 15th of the month following the month covered by the claim (column 2). Original and revised claims must be submitted no later than 60 days following the last day of the month covered by the claim (column 3).

2026 SFSP Claim Submission Schedule

| Column 1: Claim Month | Column 2: Due Date for Prompt Payment | Column 3: Deadline for Final Payment |
|-----------------------|---------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| June 2026             | July 15, 2026                         | August 31, 2026                      |
| July 2026             | August 17, 2026                       | September 29, 2026                   |

Summer Meals Updates 2026

Note: A claim that is reaching the final deadline date for submission (column 3) might not be paid if it is not submitted by the final deadline in column 3. “Submitted” means claims for reimbursement are prepared by the sponsor’s designated claims preparer and then subsequently certified (i.e., submitted) by the authorized signer in the CNP system.

Submitting Claims to the CSDE

All SFSP sponsors must submit claims in the Connecticut Online Application and Claiming System for Connecticut Child Nutrition Programs (CNP System). The CNP System allows sponsors to enter and submit claims throughout the month. Claims may be submitted by the date in column 2 of the 2024 SFSP Claim Submission Schedule for timely reimbursement by the CSDE.

Claims must be submitted by the date in column 3 to ensure compliance with the required time frame (60 days). Although sponsors may prepare and submit a claim in the CNP System at any time, a claim that is reaching the final deadline date for submission (column 3 of the 2024 SFSP Claim Submission Schedule) might not be paid if it is not submitted by this final deadline date. The CSDE reserves the right to deny payment if the claim is not filed or corrected by these dates. Sponsors must therefore make every effort to submit timely and accurate information. “Submitted” means 1) claims for reimbursement are prepared by the sponsor’s designated claims preparer; and 2) then subsequently certified (i.e., submitted) by the authorized signer in the CNP system.

One-time Exception for Failure to Submit Claims

The CSDE has the authority to approve a one-time exception over a 36-month period for reimbursing a valid, late monthly claim. The one-time exception must be from the federal fiscal year (October 1 through September 30) to which the claim applies. To be considered for payment, one of the two approved authorized signers must submit a request for the one-time exception (including a corrective action plan) no later than December 15, 2026. For additional guidance, contact your Summer Meals Team Member.

SFSP Monitoring Staff

Having an efficient and capable Summer Food Service (SFSP) monitoring staff is one of the first steps in successful operations. The SFSP monitor serves as a direct link between the SFSP sponsor's administrative office and the actual food service sites. Establishing a proper monitoring system helps prevent problems from occurring and makes it easier to correct any problems that arise during the summer. The size of the monitoring staff will depend on the size of the sponsor's SFSP.

The SFSP sponsor must ensure that the monitor's responsibilities and authority are clear to the monitoring staff, site supervisors, additional site staff, and office personnel. SFSP monitors must:

- participate in annual training, understand Program requirements, including civil rights requirements;
  - ensure that sites operate according to Program guidelines;
  - carry a supply of all necessary forms during site visits and reviews;
  - provide training for site personnel when needed; and
  - spend enough time at each site to ensure proper SFSP operations.

Types of Site Visits and Reviews

SFSP monitors are required to perform site visits and site reviews at various times throughout SFSP operations. Refer to the USDA's Sponsor Monitor's Guide for more detailed information on sponsor monitoring requirements and sample forms. These reviews are an important part of the state agency's responsibility to ensure the integrity of the SFSP.

- Site visits require the monitor to ensure that the food service is operating smoothly, and any apparent problems are immediately resolved.
- Site reviews require the monitor to determine if the site is meeting all the various SFSP requirements. The monitor must observe a complete meal service from beginning to end, including delivery or preparation of meals, meal service, and clean up after meals.

Sponsors must meet the minimum monitoring requirements below.

Pre-operational visits [7 CFR 225.15(d)(2)]: SFSP sponsors must conduct pre-operational visits for new sites, sites that experienced operational problems the previous year, and existing sites that are new to non-congregate meal service, to determine that the sites have the capacity to provide meal service for the anticipated number of children in attendance and the capability to conduct the proposed meal service.

Summer Meals Updates 2026

Initial Site Visits [7 CFR 225.15(d)(3)]: SFSP sponsors must visit each of their sites at least once during the first two weeks of program operations and must promptly take such actions as are necessary to correct any deficiencies. In cases where the site operates for seven calendar days or fewer, the visit must be conducted during the period of operation. Sponsors must conduct these visits for:

- all new SFSP sites;
- all existing sites that are new to providing non-congregate meal service;
- all sites that have been determined by the sponsor to need a visit based on criteria established by the State agency pertaining to operational problems noted in the prior year, and
- any other sites that the state agency has determined need a visit.

This visit is not required for returning SFSP sites that operated successfully during the previous summer (or other most recent period of operation) and had no operational challenges. However, early and regular visits to observe site operation is a best practice to ensure regulatory compliance.

Foodservice Review [7 CFR 225.15(d)(4)]: SFSP sponsors must conduct a full review of food service operations at each site at least once during the first four weeks of SFSP operations, and thereafter must maintain a reasonable level of site monitoring. Sponsors must complete a monitoring form developed by the CSDE during these reviews. Sponsors may conduct a full review of food service operations at the same time they conduct an Initial Site Visit, as described above. If the Initial SFSP Site Visit and SFSP Foodservice Review are conducted concurrently, both forms must be completed in their entirety.

Monitoring Reports

All visits and reviews must be documented. Records of visits and reviews will help SFSP sponsors assess the operation of sites. Records are only useful when they are carefully reviewed by sponsor personnel and when follow-up monitoring is scheduled to ensure that any corrective actions have been taken to improve site operations. Each sponsor must design a tracking system for handling monitor reports. SFSP sponsors should have a system that will ensure that monitors return reports frequently, if possible, every day. The reports should be immediately reviewed by a specific member of the sponsor's staff who is responsible for following up on any problems. The staff member should:

- review any problems found by the monitor;
  - call the site supervisor, if necessary;
  - document corrective action taken at the site;
  - schedule a follow-up review, if necessary, basing the timing of a follow-up review on the severity of the problem; and
  - sign and date the report.

Summer Meals Updates 2026

Reviewing Monitoring Reports

When reviewing monitor reports, SFSP sponsors or their staff should pay attention to the quality of the reports. There are several indicators that may be apparent in the monitor's reports that may suggest the monitor's lack of program knowledge or the monitor's misunderstanding of their responsibilities. Additional training would be appropriate if the monitor:

- did not answer all questions on the report or the responses are incomplete;
- rarely notes problems and does not include comments in the remarks section of the report;
- observes that the number of meals delivered and/or served and the number of children who are in attendance are always the same but does not follow up on this suspicious pattern to see if meal counts are being taken appropriately;
- recommends a corrective action and fails to note the action taken or fails to initiate correction of the problems;
- fails to recommend adjustments to orders when the number of meals significantly exceeds attendance; and
- arrives at sites late and/or does not stay for the entire meal service for a Foodservice Review.

SFSP sponsors must be sure that monitors schedule visits and reviews so that they can meet the SFSP requirements. A good monitoring schedule and an efficient system for the review and follow-up on the SFSP monitor's reports are necessary for effective SFSP operations.

Preparing Summer Meal Program Site Staff for Monitoring

Each year, the CSDE's Summer Meal Program annual training emphasizes that site staff must be aware of the duties and responsibilities of sponsor monitors. It is also critical for site staff to understand that they may have a site visit or site review conducted on any day of service with little or no advance notice. Please ensure all site staff are aware of the potential for site visits and reviews by:

- sponsor monitors;
- sponsor administrative staff;
- Connecticut Department of Public Health Food Protection Program staff;
- CSDE Summer Meal Program staff; and
- USDA staff;

The CSDE is aware that SFSP monitors of any type can cause anxiety for site staff. SFSP sponsors can help alleviate any concerns or anxiety about the review process by providing clear guidance of the expectations for site staff during the monitoring process. Site staff should be instructed to maintain "business as usual" during the monitoring process.

For questions related to sponsor monitoring, food preparation facility and meal site health inspections, or the administrative review process, sponsors should contact their CSDE Summer Meals Staff support team member.

Food Safety Requirements for SFSP Sponsors

All SFSP sponsors are required to enter into an agreement with the CSDE that their sites will maintain proper sanitation and health standards in conformance with all applicable state and local laws and regulations [7 CFR 225.6\(i\)\(9\)]. The CSDE Summer Meal Program staff work closely with the Connecticut Department of Public Health \(DPH\) Food Protection Program \(FPP\) to ensure Connecticut's children have access to safe, healthy meals during the summer months when school is out of session. The overall mission of the DPH FPP is to reduce the risk of foodborne disease by ensuring reasonable protection from contaminated food and improving the sanitary condition of food establishments. This is accomplished by enforcement of regulations, training and education, technical consultation, special investigations, and food safety promotion.

USDA Requires the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) Food Code

The USDA requires that all entities participating in the Child Nutrition Programs must comply with the current FDA Food Code. The DPH FPP monitors food service establishments for compliance with the Food Code requirements. For more information, food service operations should contact their local health department or visit the CSDE's Food Safety for Child Nutrition Programs webpage.

Required Certified Food Protection Manager (CFPM) and Food Safety Training

Most food establishments in Connecticut, including all Summer Meal Program food preparation facilities, are required to have a Certified Food Protection Manager \(CFPM\) overseeing all food preparation. Since a CFPM must oversee all food preparation, each sponsor's Summer Meal Program staffing must be prepared to accommodate staff turnover, as well as vacation and sick days. Food safety training is separate from the federally required SFSP training that administrative, foodservice, and meal site staff must undergo prior to beginning Summer Meal Program responsibilities. Food safety training must be supported by documentation maintained on-site at the food preparation facility and be readily available during unannounced health inspections.

The CSDE strongly urges sponsors to have all local Summer Meal Program staff view the FDA's food safety videos below.

- Foodborne Illness Video Testimonials: Bernadette/Kate Jacobs
  - Preventing Foodborne Illness: Talking to Patients About Food Safety

DPH FPP III Food Worker Educational Campaign

The objective of the DPH FPP's III Food Worker Educational Campaign is to decrease the occurrence of restaurant-associated norovirus outbreaks potentially caused by food workers working while ill with vomiting or diarrhea, by educating food workers and managers. The materials were developed to inform workers of the need to report illness and to not work when they are ill; assist management in promoting open communication with food workers; provide a resource for additional information on employee health policies; increase reporting of illness by food workers to management; and increase the required reporting of ill food workers by management to the local health department.

The resources include the sample forms below to help employees and management develop employee health policies and procedures.

- Form 1-A: An optional interview form that a site manager or person in charge can use when a food worker reports illness (gastrointestinal symptoms), diagnosed with one of the big six pathogens, or exposure to someone that is diagnosed with one of the big six pathogens.
- Form 1-B: A required signed acknowledgement that staff are aware they must report to the person in charge any specific symptoms, diagnosis of six specific pathogens, or exposure to those six pathogens.
- Form 1-C: An optional medical referral form that may be given to the employee so that they can seek medical care/clearance to return to work.

If a person in charge is unsure whether a person may return to work, they should reach out to their local health department. The local health department can assist with that determination or will reach out to the DPH FPP. Individuals that call out due to vomiting or diarrhea must be kept out of the location until a) symptoms have stopped and 24 hours have passed since the stop of symptoms; or b) they provide written medical documentation to the person in charge that the symptoms are from a noninfectious condition such as pregnancy or Crohn's disease.

Updated CSDE Resource: Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) Sponsor Preparation for Administrative Review

Updated CSDE Resource: Requirements for Corrective Action Plans for the Summer Food Service Program

Findings and recommendations that are identified by the CSDE as part of the administrative review process or through caused-based audits for the SFSP must be addressed through written corrective action plans submitted to the CSDE by the specified deadline. The sponsoring organization must detail the step-by-step corrective action implemented to ensure that all findings are fully and permanently corrected. The CSDE's document, Requirements for Corrective Action Plans for the Summer Food Service Program, provides guidance and resources for the required elements of a correction action plan. A Corrective Action Plan Template for the Summer Food Service Program \(SFSP\) is also available.

Records Retention Requirements for the Summer Food Service Food Program

All SFSP sponsors must comply with the USDA's records retention requirements below.

- Maintain all necessary records for a period of three years after submission of the final claim for reimbursement for the fiscal year.
- If audit findings have not been resolved, retain records beyond the three-year period, for as long as required to resolve the issues raised by the audit. SFSP sponsors should check with their governing authority to determine if local records retention requirements are more stringent.

These requirements apply to SFSP sponsors that self-operate their food service program and SFSP sponsors that vend their food service program through a food service management company (FSMC). For detailed guidance and resources, refer to the CSDE's resource, Records Retention Requirements for the Summer Food Service Food Program.

Updated Version of CSDE's Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) Food Service Review Form

An updated version (June 2026) of the CSDE's Summer Food Service Program \(SFSP\) Food Service Review Form is available. Please discard any previous versions.

SFSP sponsors must complete this form for each site during the first four weeks of SFSP operation. Monitors are required to be at the site before operation begins until the end of service. Maintain this form on file for the administrative review of the SFSP, according to the USDA records retention requirements for the SFSP. ## Requirements for Field Trip Meals in the Summer Food Service Program

Effective October 1, 2022, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Final Rule: Streamlining Program Requirements and Improving Integrity in the Summer Food Service Program \(SFSP\) redesignated Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (7 CFR) Section 225.6\(i\)\(7\)\(v\). This section allows Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) sponsors to claim reimbursement only for meals specified in the state-sponsored agreement at an approved site, unless the requirements in 7 CFR 225.16\(g\) are met. SFSP sponsors that provide advance notice to the CSDE are allowed to receive reimbursement for meals served away from an approved site, such as meals served during field trips. The requirements for field trip meals are summarized in the CSDE's resource, Requirements for Field Trip Meals in the Summer Food Service Program.

Food Safety Requirements for Field Trip Meals in the Summer Food Service Program

As specified in 7 CFR 225.16(g)(1)(ii), field trip meals must meet all applicable state and local health, safety, and sanitation standards. The greatest food safety concern for field trip meals is ensuring that foods defined by the Food and Drug Administration's (FDA) Food Code as "Time/Temperature Control for Safety Food" (TCS) – formerly known as potential hazardous foods (PHFs) – stay at proper temperatures during transport and service. TCS require time/temperature control for safety to limit pathogenic microorganism growth or toxin formation that can lead to foodborne illness. The food safety requirements for field trip meals are summarized in the CSDE's resource, Food Safety Requirements for Field Trip Meals in the Summer Food Service Program.

Reminder About Requirements for Crediting Commercial Products in the SFSP

SFSP sponsors must be able to document the crediting information for commercially prepared foods that are processed or contain added ingredients. Some examples include as deli meats, pizza, chicken nuggets, hummus, coleslaw, and smoothies. The acceptable types of crediting documentation for processed foods include any of the documents below.

- Child Nutrition (CN) label: A CN label is a USDA-approved statement that clearly identifies the contribution of a commercial product toward the meal pattern requirements. CN labels are available only for main dish entrees that contribute at least ½ oz eq of the MMA component, but they often include crediting information for other meal components that are part of the product, such as vegetables, fruits, and grains. Allowable CN label documentation includes 1) the original CN label from the product carton; 2) a photocopy or photograph of the CN label shown attached to the original product carton; or 3) a CN label copied with a watermark displaying the product name and CN number provided by the vendor, attached to the bill of lading (invoice). For more information, refer to the CSDE's resource, CSDE's resource, Using Child Nutrition \(CN\) Labels in the Summer Food Service Program and visit the "CN Labels for SFSP" section of the CSDE's Crediting Documentation for the Child Nutrition Programs webpage.
- Product formulation statement (PFS): A PFS is a document developed by manufacturers that provides specific information about how a product credits toward the USDA meal patterns for the Child Nutrition Programs. The PFS must be signed by an official of the manufacturer and state the amount of each meal component contained in one serving of the product. For more information on PFS forms, refer to the CSDE's resource, Using Product Formulation Statements in the Summer Food Service Program and visit the "PFS for SFSP" section of the CSDE's Crediting Documentation for the Child Nutrition Programs webpage. For guidance on how to review a PFS, refer to the USDA's webpage, Tips for Evaluating a Manufacturer's Product Formulation Statement. Commercial processed products without a CN label or PFS cannot credit in SFSP meals and snacks unless they are listed in the USDA's Food Buying Guide for Child Nutrition Programs.

For more information, visit the CSDE's webpage, Crediting Documentation for the Child Nutrition Programs.

Reminder About Requirements for Crediting Foods Made from Scratch in the SFSP

Foods made from scratch require a recipe that documents the SFSP meal pattern crediting information per serving. For example, to credit macaroni and cheese as 2 ounces of the meats/meat alternates component and 2 servings of the grains/breads component, the SFSP sponsor's recipe must indicate that each serving contains 2 ounces of cheese and 1 cup of whole grain or enriched pasta.

For sponsors with on-site cooking facilities, the USDA recommends using standardized recipes when available to ensure accurate crediting information. A standardized recipe is a recipe that has been carefully adapted and tested to ensure that it will produce a consistent product every time it is used. For more information, refer to the "Standardized Recipes" section of the CSDE's Crediting Documentation for the Child Nutrition Programs webpage.
