Updates for USDA Foods for School Year 2022-23

As a new school year starts, districts participating in the USDA DoD Fresh Program are reminded to review the contract provisions available on the Food Distribution Program (FDP) website for the new vendor, Gargiulo Produce. Districts may start ordering in FFAVORS at any time. Take note of your delivery day and plan accordingly to allow the four business days lead time for placing orders. Review your contact information (email and phone number) for each delivery site and update as needed. Changes should be sent to the FFAVORS Help Desk.

New directors or directors who have changed districts must reach out to the FDP staff to be set up in WBSCM and FFAVORS. This allows you to monitor your USDA Foods, order weekly produce through the USDA DoD Fresh Program, and prepare for ordering for next school year. Contact Monica Pacheco at monica.pacheco@ct.gov or Allison Calhoun-White at allison.calhoun-white@ct.gov.

Reminder: Keeping Track of USDA Foods Orders: Running Web Based Supply Chain Management (WBSCM) Reports

With the addition of COVID-related funding, tracking USDA Foods is becoming more complicated. There are regular NSLP orders, bonus NSLP orders, and CCC bonus orders in WBSCM. All orders for USDA Foods should be considered requests. The Connecticut FDP must often adjust RA requests to complete a full truck for each material code.

RAs should continue to monitor WBSCM after placing requests, as most orders will change. For example, the number of cases or pounds ordered could be adjusted up or down, the delivery date could change, or the entire order could be canceled. The FDP team communicates changes in the School Lunch Tray. However, RAs should be running the Requisition Status Report monthly until the product is either in the "Purchased" or "Canceled" status (refer to example below).

,	N	L	M	IN	U	۲	ų	ĸ	5

For this school year, NSLP items and bonus items will be shown on this report. NSLP items will decrease your entitlement, but bonus items are entitlement free. The example below shows bonus and entitlement purchases.

When running the Requisition Status Report for next year, leave the "Program" field blank to capture all orders (regular NSLP, bonus NSLP, and CCC bonus orders).

For detailed instructions on running reports, refer to the FDP's WBSCM Training Guide or contact WBSCM directly with any additional questions at WBSCM.servicedesk@CACI.com or 1-877-WBSCM-4U or 877-927-2648. The FDP staff are also available to answer questions.

Important Reminder: Disaster Preparedness for School Food Service Professionals

The USDA Foods Program Disaster Manual and the Connecticut State Department of Education Food Distribution Program (CSDE FDP) document, Disaster Feeding Guidance for School Food Authorities Using USDA Foods, address a school food authority's (SFA) response to disasters. Please review and share with appropriate staff. If there is a Presidential declaration, HPC Foodservice will have first priority to assist the State of Connecticut.

USDA has released a new tool, The Food Safety Emergency Response Pocket Guide, to support school food service professionals in their response to food safety emergencies caused by disasters and weather-related events.

You may be called upon by either town officials or the Red Cross to serve food to the public through congregate feeding. If you use USDA Foods, keep records of the USDA Foods used and any transportation costs. If there is a Presidential declaration, the CSDE FDP will work with you on the application process to the USDA for replacement and reimbursement. The USDA provides replacement in situations of distress only to the extent that Food and Nutrition Service funds are available. Please keep the CSDE FDP informed if your district opens shelters that involve congregate feeding. E-mail Monica Pacheco at monica.pacheco@ct.gov or Allison Calhoun-White at allison.calhoun-white@ct.gov.

Resource Roundup: Addendum A: Sharing Information with Other Programs

Due to the confidentiality of the information and determination of the free and reduced-price meals or free milk application, many schools and districts use Addendum A to provide parents and guardians with the opportunity to have their child receive additional benefits based on their free or reduced-price status. Some examples of student benefits include free physicals, free athletic uniforms, free field trips, and holiday baskets.

This form must outline the specifics of the applicable programs or services that are offered and the title of the person who will have access to the student's name and free or reduced-price eligibility status. Note that some determining officials choose not to issue addendum A until after the application approval process when the parent notification letter is sent to households. In this case, addendum A is issued only to those households approved for free or reduced-price meals. This helps to decrease the paperwork that's included with the application.
