School Year 2023-24

Instructions

Use the chart on page 3, "Money Collection and Point-of-service Milk Count Systems," to identify the type of money collection system and point-of-service system used at each school or site under the local educational agency (LEA). This must include all money collection systems and point-of-service systems used at each school or site location.

Note: If a site or school has multiple systems, all systems must be identified in the list on page 2. For example, if an elementary school has a point-of-sale (POS) system for grades K-5 and has a preschool classroom that uses a roster system, list both systems.

- Indicate the LEA's name and sponsor agreement number for Child Nutrition Programs (CNP).
- Column A: List the names of all district schools/sites, including interschool agreement sites. If the district uses the same money collection system and point-of-service system at all schools/sites, write the district name in column A, leave column B blank, and complete columns C-E.
- Column B: Indicate the site ID code. This is the number assigned to each school/site in the Connecticut State Department of Education's (CSDE) Connecticut Online Application and Claiming System for Child Nutrition Programs (CNP System).
- Column C: Indicate the money collection system used at each school/site.
- Column D: Indicate the point-of-service system used for lunch at each school/site. Check (☑) box if milk is served outside of the cafeteria, e.g., in classroom or grab and go in a hallway.
- Column E: Indicate the point-of-service system used for breakfast at each school/site. Check (☑) box if milk is served outside of the cafeteria, e.g., in classroom or grab and go in a hallway.

Upload the information on this form to the CSDE's CNP System. Do not send a hard copy of this form to the CSDE.

The chart below provides an overview of the different types of money collection and point-of-service milk count systems that LEAs can use for milk in the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) SMP. All money collection and point-of-service systems must prevent overt identification of eligible students. LEAs must contact the CSDE for prior approval to use any systems not listed below.

The federal regulations (7CFR 210.2) define "point of service" as that point in the food service operation where an accurate determination that a reimbursable free milk has been served to an eligible child. The point of service includes two distinct aspects: identifying a student's eligibility status (free or paid) when they receive a reimbursable milk; and identifying that the student has taken a reimbursable milk that can be counted and claimed.

Money Collection and Point-of-service Milk Count Systems
Money Collection System	Point-of-Service Milk Count System
Computer/Point-of-Service System
A. Student brings money for milk either to pay in the line or to deposit in their computer account. Funds may also be deposited online. Student accounts are debited by the computer system as they receive their milk. Students eligible for free milk have accounts without cash balances, unless a la carte funds are deposited.	1. Student enters PIN, scans an ID card, scans fingerprint, or enters code in a keypad when they receive a milk. The computer system tallies the milk counts by category.
Ticket-based Systems (not recommended)
B. Students buy coded tickets or receive free tickets. All categories are available at the same times and places. No announcement of category is made. Sufficient time and locations are available to prevent groups of children in line openly viewing the exchange process. Efforts are made to encourage purchase of tickets by students paying full price.	 Coded tickets are surrendered when the milk is received. Students must have a ticket to receive a milk. Long-term (weekly) tickets are punched or marked, and a tally sheet is used to keep a count of the number of milks by category.

- C. Students bring money for milk in an envelope marked with their name. Students eligible for free milk also turn in an envelope. Tickets are distributed in no special order to students in the envelopes.
- 4. Students who have pre-paid and received a ticket surrender the ticket when they receive a milk. Students with cash pay when they receive a milk, and cash milk counts are kept on a tally sheet or programmed cash register. The pre-pay option is adequately publicized and is convenient. Enough paying students use the option so children using the tickets in the service line are not easily distinguished as free or reduced eligible.

Roster-based Systems (not recommended)

- D. Students bring money for milk, and a roster or accounting form is marked to indicate the number of milks that have been prepaid. Sufficient time and locations are available to prevent groups of children in line openly viewing the exchange process. Students eligible for free milk are marked as having paid.
- 5. Students are individually marked off on a check list or an accounting roster as they receive their milk. The checklist is coded so that milk categories can be determined but are not overt. The checklist may be the same form on which student payments have been entered.
- E. Students bring money for milk in an envelope marked with their name. Students eligible for free milk also turn in an envelope. The money is recorded on a roster or accounting form.
- 6. Students turn in an identification card when they receive a milk. The cards are used to determine a count by category and are sorted by classroom and returned to children for the next day's milk or are available in the cafeteria.
- F. All students either pay cash or charge milk at the time they receive them. Students eligible for free milk receive no bills.
- 7. A head count of total milk served is taken at the point of service.
- G. No monies are collected because the school is operating a nonpricing program, a Provision 2 program, or a Community Eligibility Program (CEP).
- 8. An approved alternative point-of-service count is taken and recorded. Alternative point-of-service counts require prior written approval by the CSDE.
