

Dyslexia Awareness Collaborative

Honoring Those Who Inspire Us: An Evening with Jordan Toma

Date & Time

Thursday, May 21, 2026

4:15–5:00 p.m.

Refreshments and connections

5:00–7:00 p.m.

Jordan Toma presentation

Location

Coginchaug Regional
High School Auditorium
135 Pickett Lane, Durham, CT 06422

Who Should Attend

This session is open to educators, students, families, and professionals interested in learning about self-advocacy and empowerment for those with dyslexia.

Registration

Scan or click the
QR code to register.

Questions?

For general questions, contact
Claire Conroy at conroy@ctserc.org.

For registration questions, contact
Lauren Johns at johns@ctserc.org.

An event not to be missed for students, teachers, and families of students with dyslexia!

Jordan Toma is a top U.S. motivational speaker and inspirational author of I'm Just a Kid with an IEP, which has sold over 150,000 copies worldwide.

Diagnosed with attention deficit/hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), dyslexia, and dysgraphia, a reading comprehension learning disability, Jordan struggled in elementary and high school, missing countless days and never passing a test on his own. Despite those difficulties, Jordan turned things around during a "Step Ahead" (pre-college) program and graduated from Centenary University with a 3.3 GPA and a degree in psychology. Three years later, Jordan spoke with students in the same pre-college program he attended. Over time, Jordan learned, "My struggle is my strength. Today, I wear that like a badge of honor."

Now, at 35, Jordan is a successful businessperson and a top insurance agent and investment advisor with a multimillion-dollar real estate portfolio. He speaks at schools and corporate events all over the country.