

You're invited!

The CSDE Office of Dyslexia and Reading Disabilities invites students to join digital illustrator, author, and puppet maker Krista Weltner for a virtual viewing of her short film, Partially Compensated, a stop-motion animated film about a dyslexic child discovering her difference.

Date & Time

Tuesday, December 10, 2024
1:00 to 2:00 p.m.

Who Should Attend

All students* and educators

Registration

Scan or click the QR code to register.

After registering, you will receive a link to the event.

If an educator is registering on behalf of a student or group of students, please indicate that on the registration form.

* Please note: Some of this film's content may be too mature for students in the primary grades.

Through virtual streaming opportunities provided to Connecticut schools, students are invited to join Krista for a virtual viewing of her stop-motion short film inspired by her experience growing up with dyslexia. Krista will also answer questions and engage students in a discussion about film making!

"This has been seen in film festivals around the world and has afforded me many opportunities to advocate for dyslexic children."

— Krista Weltner

For more information about Krista Weltner, visit her website at www.kristaweltner.com.

