

SCED CODE INFORMATION

The National Forum on Education Statistics has a variety of resources available on the web site.

url: https://nces.ed.gov/forum/Master\_List.asp

The screenshot displays the NCES website interface for SCED resources. The header includes the IES and NCES logos, the text 'National Center for Education Statistics', a 'MENU' button, and a search bar with a 'Go' button. The main content area is titled 'SCED Version 7 Resources' and features a 'SCED Master List Downloadable File' (276 KB) link. A sidebar on the left lists various resources, including 'Introduction to SCED', 'Current SCED File: Version 7.0', 'SCED FAQ', 'Master List', 'Previous SCED Versions', 'SCED Working Group', 'SCED Videos', and 'SCED Case Studies'. A 'Current SCED File: Version 7.0' section provides a description of the file and a 'Download the Excel File' link. A 'SCED FINDER' section describes a tool for searching and selecting SCED codes, with a 'Go to SCED Finder' link. Four numbered callouts provide additional context: 1) The Master List file lists every SCED code from every version. 2) The 'Current SCED File: Version 7.0' section contains the latest SCED codes. 3) The sidebar contains additional SCED resources, FAQs, and reference materials. 4) The SCED Finder section provides a tool to search for courses by title and/or description, or by subject.

1 This file lists every SCED code from every version of SCED. This can be useful to LEA's when updating codes from prior school years.

2 This section of the page contains a download of the latest SCED codes – currently Version 7.0. SCED codes are generally updated each fall so we will likely use Version 7.0 for the 20-21 TCS collection.

3 This section contains additional SCED resources, FAQs, and reference materials.

4 This section of the page provides users with a tool to search for courses. After clicking on the link go to “Begin Searching/Browsing Course.” You can then enter key words to search the title and/or course description. You also have the option to browse by Subject.