

Family, School, Community Engagement Curriculum Framework

Wednesday, November 6, 2019
8:30 a.m.–3:30 p.m.

Registration begins at 8 a.m.

The Hartford Foundation for Public Giving
10 Columbus Boulevard
Hartford, CT 06106

Register

This professional learning session will highlight ten hours of curriculum in the area of family, school, community engagement as a strategy to achieve equity that can be used in preparation programs for aspirant teachers and school/teacher leaders.

Who Should Attend:

Administrator and Teacher Preparation Program faculty, school leaders from partner districts, and clinical experience coaches

Participants will:

- Learn about the research and design mechanisms used to implement curriculum change to focus on family, school, community engagement;
- Understand the newly designed curriculum content in the area of family, school, community engagement; and
- Have an opportunity to consult with district leaders from the Hartford region who helped design the curriculum and have shared it in a professional learning format in their districts.

Presenters and authors of the Family, School, Community Engagement Curriculum:

- Jennifer Michno, University of Connecticut
- Jacqueline Coleman and Cynthia Sanchez, Hartford Foundation for Public Giving
- Judy Carson, Connecticut State Department of Education
- Family, School, Community Engagement Specialists from: East Hartford, Windsor Locks, Vernon, Windsor, and Manchester Public Schools

Questions:

Please contact Sharon M. S. Fuller, Education Consultant, at 860-713-6814 or sharon.fuller@ct.gov.

The development of the Family, School, Community Engagement Curriculum has been made possible by a grant from The Hartford Foundation for Public Giving to The University of Connecticut. The University of Connecticut is providing this curriculum at no cost to Connecticut Educator Preparation Programs.

