

STATE OF CONNECTICUT
COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

The State Board of Education and Governor Ned Lamont are seeking a Commissioner of Education to lead Connecticut's public education system. This educational leader will build upon Connecticut's recent successes in improving the quality of education for all students, closing the achievement gap and providing targeted resources and supports to ensure that Connecticut's students are well prepared for success in college, career and civic life. Qualified applicants must demonstrate knowledge and experience relevant to the goals of State Board of Education's Five-year Comprehensive Plan: Ensuring Equity and Excellence for All Connecticut Students and success in leading large-scale change related to the components of Connecticut's ESSA Consolidated State Plan.

Qualified applicants must demonstrate the ability to manage an effective, efficient organization and work successfully with the legislature and education constituency groups, including the general public.

Interested parties should submit a letter of intent describing your qualifications for the position, current resume and list of references, including contact information to:
