

2023 SERC Interagency Exercise-- photos

Fairfield/Bridgeport CT
September 6 & 7, 2023

Objectives & Capabilities
Exercise Objectives	Core Capability
Recognize imminent hazards, implement an incident command system, and request resources in accordance with plans, procedures, and best practices.	Operational Coordination
Regional hazmat teams shall demonstrate the ability to protect their own health & safety as well as the public in accordance with plans, procedures, and best practices.	Incident & On-scene Application of a risk-based hazmat response.
Response agencies shall demonstrate the ability to deliver coordinated, clear, prompt, accurate, and reliable information to the community in accordance with plans, procedures, and best practices.	Public Information & Warning
Response agencies shall demonstrate interoperable communication methods in support of security, situational awareness, and scene operations in accordance with plans, procedures, and best practices.	Operational Communications
Response personnel will demonstrate proper decontamination techniques, safe transfer of an injured patient to EMS and the transfer of care to the local hospital.	Environmental Health & Safety Patient Care, Transport & Transfer of Care

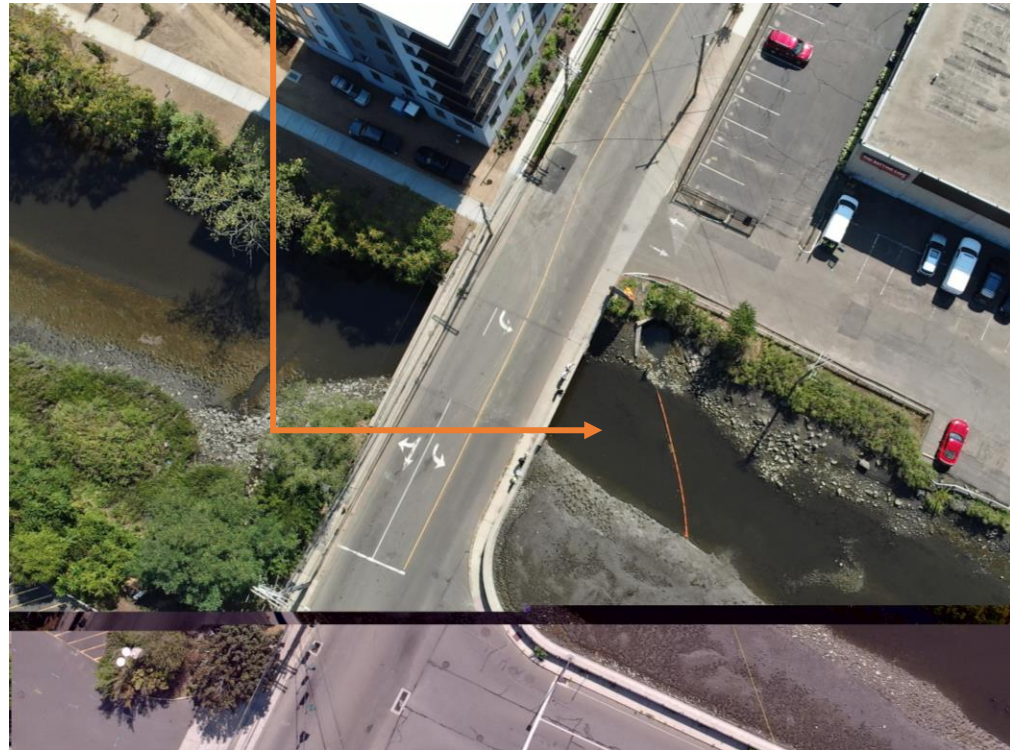

Geographic Response Strategies –testing south of Train Station

Geographic Response Strategies testing

- Testing of potential booming location at Ash Creek

Exercise set up-overview of Fairfield Regional Training School set up for drill

Bridgeport, Fairfield Fire Departments; Fairfield Regional HazMat Team

