Provider Description

Information provided by the provider describing their agency:

Established in 1989, it is the purpose of Key Human Services, Inc. (Key) to act as a change agent for people with disabilities, creating opportunities that encourage growth and meaningful life choices while assisting persons in finding home, health, friends, work, and presence in their communities. With support from the Department of Developmental Services, the Department of Social Services, and the Department of Children and Families of the State of Connecticut, Key provides a selection of services and supports, such as community living arrangements (group homes), individual supports, nursing services, and Birth to Three, to people with disabilities. Key's community Homes support men and who receive supports to realize their personal potential and pursue independent, productive and meaningful lives. Individual and Family support services include autism services, community training homes, individualized day support and individualized home support. Comprehensive Nursing Services address the needs of men, women and children with developmental disabilities. Nursing services includes RN on Call, which makes a registered nurse available 24 hours a day. Nurses are also available to contract with other agencies. The Birth to Three early intervention program provides direct services and supports to children who have a significant delay and their families. Provided in the child's home or community, Birth to Three supports children to develop at a pace similar to their peers. In 2008, Key began providing services under the Connecticut Autism Pilot. In this program, young adults with autism receive supports designed to increase their independent participation in the community. Services range from life skill coaching and community mentors to behavioral support services based on individual goals and personal choice.
