

Ranked choice voting is not a prudent voting system. It is difficult to comprehend and undermines voters' trust. There is little to no demand for it.

In the case of multiple opponents, a much better system is to replicate Georgia, and have a run off over the two top candidates.

Sincerely,

Joseph Bentivegna MD