Subject: Hazardous Duty Retirement for Chief Police Officer – Supreme Court

Effective: July 9, 2004

In accordance with Connecticut General Statutes 5-200(p), the Commissioner of the Department of Administrative Services, with the approval of the Secretary of the Office of Policy and Management, approves the classification of Chief Police Officer – Supreme Court as eligible for Hazardous Duty Retirement under the State Employees Retirement Act. An employee in this classification regularly performs the full range of investigative and law enforcement duties that his/her subordinate employees, who are covered by the hazardous duty provisions, perform. Therefore, effective July 9, 2004 Chief Police Officer – Supreme Court is eligible for Hazardous Duty Retirement.
