DATA POLICIES & PROCEDURES

- The Institute for Educational Sciences SLDS Grant Program recommends the development of data policies and processes for effective data governance.
- Data Policies are high level and describe what actions will be taken and why in broad terms.
- Data Processes support the implementation of policies by documenting detailed, step-by-step tasks to operationalize the rules established in policies.
- Processes identify specific tasks, individuals or roles responsible for those tasks, dependencies between tasks, and any necessary timeframes for their completion.
