Letter of Censure for Charles Brush

August 18, 2014

CHARLES H. BRUSH, JR.
PO BOX 86
SOUTHBURY, CT 06488

RE: 2010080-3430 Compliant against Mr. Charles H. Brush by Shapiro & Epstein, PC

Dear Mr. Brush,

The Connecticut State Board of Accountancy is charged with the legislative authority to regulate the profession of certified public accountancy and public accountancy firms in the state of Connecticut. The board's goal is to ensure the integrity and public confidence in the profession of public accountancy. As such, the board is given the authority to investigate complainants against certified public accountants.

The board's records indicate that on January 8, 1991, you received a Connecticut Certificate to Practice Public Accountancy, certificate number 7840. Further on January 1, 2007, you were issued a Connecticut License to Practice Public Accountancy, license number 6751.

On May 31, 2011, the Connecticut State Board of Accountancy received a notice of compliant by Shapiro & Epstein, PC alleging the following violations of the Connecticut General Statutes: §20-281k (8) Statements, records, schedules, working papers and memoranda incident to practice of public accountancy. Return of original records. Retention of certain work paper. Further the respondent has been notified of violating the board's requirements of §20-280-15c, which stipulates: (q) Communications. A licensee shall, when requested, respond to communications from the board within thirty days of the mailing of such communications by registered or certified mail. After several attempts to resolve this matter, the Connecticut State Board of Accountancy voted unanimously on August 5, 2014 to include a letter of censure in your permanent records with the Board of Accountancy.

The Connecticut State Board of Accountancy does not take this censure lightly, choosing to trust that this action will enlighten you and positively impact you and your conduct as a holder of the Connecticut Certificate of Public Accountancy. Should the board receive notify of future complaints the board reserves the right to expedite the matter to a full hearing, with the potential outcome being a revocation or suspension of rights as a certified public accountant.

A copy of this document will remain in your files permanently. Please sign and return the document, no later than September 31, 2014. Should you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact the Connecticut State Board of Accountancy directly.

Respondent, Mr. Charles H. Brush, Jr. acknowledges receipt of the Letter of Censure. Respondent, Mr. Charles H. Brush, acknowledges that this Letter of Censure will remain permanently in his file with the Connecticut State Board of Accountancy.
