Minutes- Motion made by (7) seconded by (2) to approve the October 17, 2107 minutes.

John Nuemon, Director of the department's Investigation Division, provided an update of complaints for the quarter.

Mr. Nuemon advised the Board that a new Public Act gives the department the ability for anyone who owes money to the department for any reason, can take action on any credential, permit or license issued by the department.

Mr. Nuemon also alerted the Board to a statute that the department is routinely employing, which is post judgement remedies under Statute 52-400e; that if there is an outstanding judgment against you, which is related to the conduct for which you are licensed and the judgement is outstanding for more than 180 days and you refuse to pay it, the department can take action against the license.
