Direct Support Professionals needed!

Individuals throughout Connecticut are hiring Direct Support Professionals! Direct Support Professionals provide support to children and adults of all ages with developmental disabilities as they take part in everyday life – working, playing, and being involved in their community. Positions may be part-time or full-time; day, evening, weekend or overnight shifts are available.

Job duties may include: personal care; transportation to appointments; recreational activities; job coaching; respite care (giving families time away from caregiving responsibilities); and more! Job candidates must complete College of Direct Support training, which includes mandatory online training classes. Criminal background checks are required by DDS as part of the hiring process.
