Dear Turkey Dipper,

Wow this is the 41st year of the TURKEY DIP! Welcome back to our yearly plunge on Thanksgiving morning! This year we are excited to announce that the dip will be held at Camp Quinebaug located at 54 Taos Drive, Danielson, CT. All proceeds from this year's dip will directly benefit Camp Quinebaug and all of the great kiddos that attend the summer camp program.

If you are not familiar with Camp Quinebaug, it is a summer camp program for school age children with disabilities. Through state funding and the fundraising efforts of The Friends of Camp Q this program is free of charge for these special kids to attend. It is an experience that they never forget and is something that would not be possible without the support of our generous volunteers and supporters!

Last year we raised close to $20,000 and are hoping to make this year an even bigger success! Things will be a little different this year as we will not be holding the Pre-Dip dinner but instead will be offering a light breakfast Thanksgiving morning for you to enjoy both before and after the dip. We will be collecting all pledges that morning and will also pass out any awards as well.

The crowds start arriving at the Dip around 7:00 am on Thanksgiving morning. Gary O and the crew from WINY 1350-AM will be broadcasting live beginning at that time. Don't forget the Paul Burton Spirit Award for the goofiest or elaborate costume! That is judged at 7:30. And, as always, the Dip takes place at 8:00 am.

For those who want to contact your friends and family via email for pledges, be sure to check out www.campquinebaug.com/turkeydip2017. Follow the directions and be sure to bring us your print-out of your pledges when you register. Please make checks payable to "The Friends of Camp Q."

We all look forward to seeing you again this year.

Dear Friend:

Wow! 41 years! Plans are underway for the 41st Annual Turkey Dip. Last year alone, over 150 “dippers” braved the frigid water at Quaddick State Park on Thanksgiving morning raising in excess of $20,000 for Camp Quinebaug. This year’s Dip will take place at Camp Quinebaug in the Quinebaug Reservoir. As we continue to grow the event, we are seeking additional corporate sponsors to join and help us make this year’s Turkey Dip the biggest and best ever. Sponsors can either commit to one of the sponsorship levels and/or field a team of “dippers” of $500 or more may have their company names/logos printed on t-shirts that are distributed to all participants. Additionally, they will be recognized in print and electronic media advertising.

On behalf of the Friends of Camp Quinebaug and the entire Turkey Dip Committee, many thanks for your consideration.

Respectfully yours,

James Mahoney
Chairperson
