

Mood Disorders in Women and Girls with Intellectual Disability and

The DSM-ID, an Adaptation of the DSM-IV for People with ID

Presenter: Dr. Pamela Kurth, is a child psychiatrist who did her psychiatric residency at Brown University, including work at The Center for Autism and Developmental Disabilities (CADD), an inpatient service for children with serious behavioral disorders in addition to a developmental disability. She currently is a consultant with the Department of Developmental Services, South Region Individual and Family Support Team as well as having a private practice in West Hartford, CT. This presentation is part of a contract with the Office on Women's Health, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. There is no charge to attendees. The same lecture will be given at the two locations:

9:30 to 11:30 am, Friday, August 5, 2011 Space still available for this lecture

Room 341, third floor

401 West Thames Street

Norwich CT 06360

9:30 to 11:30am, Friday August 19, 2011 No more spaces available for this lecture

3rd floor, DDS Training Room

370 James St.

New Haven CT 06513

At each lecture, copies of the DSM-ID will be given to three randomly selected representatives from private agencies, practitioners, or clinics.

Please RSVP to maureen.thomas@ct.gov or 203-974-4268 if you plan to attend.

Space is limited.