RE: American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 Home and Community Based Services Provider Payments

The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services recently approved the state's American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 Home and Community Based Services plan. This plan includes three initiatives with funding for qualified providers funded by the Department. The Department and Fiscal Intermediaries are currently processing payments and providers should receive funds by early next week.

Here is a summary of the initiatives included in this payment:

1. Temporary Provider Stabilization Funds – Based on 3.39% of payments for services between 7/1/2021 – 11/30/2021. This initiative represents 32.73% of your payment.
2. DDS Workforce Stability Incentive – Based on 4.12% of payments for services between 7/1/2021 – 11/30/2021. This initiative represents 39.75% of your payment.
3. DDS Stability and Infrastructure Improvements through Technology - Based on 2.85% of payments for services between 7/1/2021 – 11/30/2021. This initiative represents 27.52% of your payment.

The Department will provide additional guidance and the payment detail soon. Please feel free to contact me at scott.mcwilliams@ct.gov or (860) 418-6163 with any questions.
