Comments: Prime Coating + Suchocki & Son currently do not have Affirmative Action Plans. They will not be allowed to perform work on the project until a plan is submitted + approved. Country Lumber also does not have an AA plan, however since their contract is less than $10,000, it is not a requirement, though if their contract increases to above $10,000, it will be required. Any questions should be directed, if the plans submitted, to Albert Cobbin (860-594-2167, albert.cobbin@ct.gov)
