

Did you know?

Pertussis, also known as whooping cough, is highly contagious and can cause serious illness in people of all ages.

It is spread from person to person through close contact with someone who is infected via secretions from coughing and sneezing.

Vaccination for pertussis is recommended for persons of all ages.

Talk to your healthcare provider to more about pertussis vaccination.

For more information visit Lung.org/pertussis

